1 Jul 1836 -- The Pittsburgh Gazette (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania), Friday, 1 Jul 1836:

Awful Disaster on the Rob Roy.

Steam Boat Rob Roy, four miles above Columbia, Arkansas, Thursday, 9th June 1836.

The steam boat Rob Roy, Hugh Findren, master, left New Orleans, on Sunday, the 5th inst., at 11 o'clock, a.m., bound for Louisville, and proceeded on her voyage ...until this evening at six o'clock. One of the flues in the starboard boiler collapsed, tearing it partly from the boiler head at both ends. ...To give a description of the scene of destruction and suffering would be impossible. Annexed you will find the names of those who were found on deck and taken from the water, and also of two men who we know were drowned or killed, but who have not been seen. The number lost in the river cannot be accurately known, perhaps not more than 3 or 4 besides those enumerated in the list.

List of persons scalded by collapse of flue on Rob Roy.

Deck Passengers. Henry Snodgrass, Parke Co., Ia., badly.

1980 -- Arkansas Family Historian, vol. 18, page 156:

A book listing the descendants of two "Snodgrass" Families has been compiled as a "finding list" by Q. A. Hardin, Drawer 2797, Fort Smith, AR 72913. Our thanks to the compiler for donating this book to our AGS Library. Section 1 is about "Some Descendants of David Snodgrass", of Washington Co., Virginia, 1780-1814. Section 2 is about "Some Descendants of John Snodgrass," Washington Co., Virginia. The descendants are listed alphabetically, and each name has an identifying coded Family Group Number.

It is the hope of Mr. Hardin that he will hear from other members of these families in order to establish connections between all Snodgrass Lineages. There are many pictures of the people listed. If anyone would like further information about a specific family group listed, they may contact Mr. Hardin and send $1 per family for group sheet. This is a unique method for obtaining further information about these family members.

2 Jan 1896 -- Benton Co. Democrat (? city, Arkansas), 2 Jan 1896:
(from The Seligman, Mo. Sunbeam) Our little city was thrown into a great state of excitement on Christmas Eve. After the merry distribution of the many presents of the tree at the Union church and the dismissal of the crowd everything seemed bright and serene until a crowd of boys gathered on the street, some of whom were intoxicated, and a difficulty soon arose. It seems that Eugene Murray and Frank Snodgrass were the first to have words which resulted in blows. About this time, Abijah Fairchild, who was deputized to assist the constable in keeping order, arrived on the scene and attempted to quell the disturbance but Walter Murray, an older brother of Eugene, interfered and wanted the boys to fight it out. A few words passed between him and Fairchild when he threw off his coat, drew a knife and made at Fairchild, cutting him in the left side. Fairchild drew a pistol and fired three shots at Murray, the last one taking effect in Murray's head just above the left eye and penetrated the brain. Although unconscious he lingered for nearly 48 hours before death. The remains were interred at New Salem cemetery Friday. Abijah Fairchild's wound is not serious and he is now convalescent. At the coroner's inquest it was decided to hold him, and he was placed under a $3,000 bond to appear for preliminary examination before Squire Patterson on Tuesday, 31 Dec. This is a sad affair as both these young men belong to good families and were not of age, both being about 19 years old.

Letter, 25 Jun 1919
Recorder of Deeds, Sedalia, Missouri
Dear Sir:

As attorneys in the above stated claim, we shall appreciate a search of your records to ascertain whether they show death of Mary A. Snodgrass, a former wife of the soldier on 7 Feb 1885 at Sedalia, Missouri. If on file, what will be the cost of a certified copy?

Respectfully
W. Elliott Waggaman & Co.

No record of death kept in this office and I do not think in 1885 there was a record of deaths kept here at all. At present there is what is known as "The Registrar" who keeps a record of births and deaths under the supervision of the State board of health, but I am of the opinion that same was started about 20 years ago.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of July 30, 1919...Nancy O. Snodgrass... I give below data secured from the census records of 1850 and 1860:

Name	Age

List of Documents in case of Nancy O. Snodgrass, widow of William E. Snodgrass, 11 Sep 1919:

- 1) Affidavit of Steve Syfert & Sarah Syfert, dated 7 May 1912: soldier & claimant married; Nancy Jones being Nancy Oma Snodgrass, 10 Jan 1894; soldier died 14 Jun 1911; Nancy O. Snodgrass now a widow.
- 2) Affidavit of Mattie Meritt, Ellsworth, Kansas, dated 2 Mar 1917: First husband, Samuel Batchelor, died 17 Mar 1878; claimant next married Henry Jones, now deceased...
- 3) Affidavit of Chas. H. Batchlear, Dehli, Oklahoma, dated 2 Mar 1917: First husband Samuel H. Batchlear died; claimant married Henry Jones, who died; claimant married soldier 10 Jan 1894; lived together, no divorce.

 Letter, 22 Oct 1919
 The Commissioner of Pensions
 Washington, D.C.
 Sir:

Herewith are returned all papers in the above described case which was referred for special examination to determine the number of former marriages of soldier and dissolution of same, whether claimant has remarried since his death, and to determine if possible the organization in which her second husband Jones rendered service...

The claimant and her witnesses are of good repute and impressed me as being truthful. The testimony herewith is deemed sufficient to show non-remarriage of claimant. I also secured the testimony of soldier's sister, Mary Bowen, who testified that he had but one prior marriage. She is the only living full sister. There is no living brother.

There is a younger half-sister, Kate Trusty, wife of Charles Trusty, who runs a restaurant in Joplin, Missouri, and half-brother Fred Snodgrass, P.O. probably Goodman, Missouri. The only one of soldier's children by the first wife whose address was definitely known is John T. (Tom) Snodgrass, P.O. Pawhuska, Oklahoma (2 years ago). Maggie, wife of the son William, (B.J.16) lives in Little Rock.

As to claimant's second husband Jones, she stated that she drew a pension as his widow, receiving but one payment of $330.55 the amount due her from date of filing claim to date of her remarriage to Mr. Snodgrass.

While she could furnish no data to identify Mr. Jones service, nor the number of her pension certificate, yet it would seem that her case can be easily identified by the alphabetical cards in the Record Div.

It is therefore recommended that a search be made on the card indexes for the claim of Nancy O. Jones, widow of Henry Clay Jones, Missouri. Cav.(?). Her P.O. then was Alma, Crawford Co., Arkansas.

If further testimony is desired to show soldier's prior marital history the witnesses named in paragraph 5 may be seen, especially Maggie Snodgrass (B.J.16), Little Rock, Arkansas.

Respectfully submitted
 G. M. Milburn
 Special Examiner

REDMOND COLE Collection

[pages 90-91]

Denver, CO, 19 Nov 1953

Dear Mr. Cole,

I was given your name by Mr. Thomas Howe Neal, Route 12, Box 372, Knoxville 18, TN. He said he had been informed you were a descendant of the Snodgrass family and had collected much information about the Snodgrass Family. I too am a descendant of the Snodgrasses. I think Mr. Neal and I are likely both descendants of the same family in Virginia. But as yet I have no proof. In fact, I have only sketchy information about the earlier ancestors of mine and have no proof that they are the Snodgrasses of Washington Co., Virginia.

Our family had a Bible record dating back into the 1700's. It is not complete and does not give Brothers and Sisters. But I have traced some of them back into Franklin Co., Arkansas, and in the 1850 census of that county, I discovered one of my ancestors was born in Kentucky. Mr. Neal informs me that some of the older Snodgrasses went from Virginia to Kentucky, and I see there is a great repetition of family given names in my Snodgrasses and the ones I have located thus far in Washington Co., Virginia.

I have been working on my family history since 1947. I am interested in all of my ancestors equally; thus I have a really great undertaking. I will type out a sketch of my line of ancestors. I hope you will have some information about them that you will be able to let me have. I include not only the ones I know are my family, but I am also including the Virginia group. I feel there is a possibility my William W. Snodgrass may be the son of the Virginia Joseph Snodgrass who is no. 2, but as yet I have not proof.

This group of Arkansas people is our family. It may not be complete. The Bible gave mostly the direct line of ancestors and did not include all of their children. From letters and things the older living Snodgrasses remember hearing about, we have pieced the information together to decide that the eight I list are ours. There may be others. W. L. Snodgrass and his wife Mary Elizabeth [Clarke] died in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Black [see below], but we do not know where she lived for sure. There was also a list of McGehee children included in the Bible record. We have no explanation as yet about them, other than the list of their names.

I hope you can help me with this information. I have some information about the different ones I have placed on the charts. If you are interested in any of them, I will be glad to send a copy of what I have.

Yours Truly,
Mrs. Edna M. Branstine, 2000 South Dayton, Denver 20, CO.

Mary Snodgrass married (1) Thomas Davison; married (2) William Black, who died in 1864; married (3) before 1870, Mr. Miller. Her birthdate from a Bible record was 1 Mar 1830; birthdate from her tombstone in Nixa, Missouri, is 1 Mar 1831.

Will Johnson

<Please note: Mrs. Branstine added what she thought were brothers and sisters of her ancestor, James Wilson Snodgrass, but based on the Bible record of Isaac Snodgrass above, we must conclude she was in error.>

The information about the 8 children of W. L. Snodgrass came partly from my family Bible and partly from the 1850 U.S. census for Franklin Co., Arkansas.

I am the granddaughter of Francis Margaret Snodgrass. The children of James Wilson Snodgrass who lived all resided in Dallas Co., Webster Co., or Greene Co., Missouri. [Some] of them died rather young.

Denver 9, CO [undated]

Dear Mr. Cole,

I received your very nice letter and the blanks you wished filled out. I have intended to go to the library again before I answered you, but have not gotten around to it, so am not going to wait longer. I am a cripple, and this cold weather, ice, and snow prohibits my going out much. I have filled in the blanks to the best of my knowledge. Please excuse my errors. I have as my assistant my two-and-one-half-year-old daughter, who proves to be far from a HELP. The information is correct.

I do not KNOW that the Virginia Snodgrasses ARE my people. But since I do not know, I can and should suspect them of being [my ancestors], since I believe my people did come from that general area. I have kept such information as I found about Snodgrasses in different areas since I might be able at some future date to connect them to mine. There are microfilm copies of marriages in Virginia in the Denver Public Library. Plus microfilm 1850 U.S. census records. The 1790 (book form) census is here also. I have been slowly working my way through the maze of information I find there. They have a number of excellent works on Virginia. The Tennessee information is totally lacking. There is pitifully little about Tennessee. The Kentucky records are somewhat better than TN, but not equal to VA.

I took up research of the various branches of my family history back in 1947 and have working as time allows until the present. About my family history work--

My mother, Anna May (Allgood) McCurry, daughter of Francis Margaret (Snodgrass) Allgood, has been working with me. She accumulated information from the family and also from cemeteries and newspapers in that area of Missouri in which our people lived. I do the other part, such as writing you, searching the library, and writing various historical libraries for information I cannot find here. We both get a great deal of satisfaction out of our work and have collected an amazing amount. There is still much more we hope to get from the family. Then I hope I can connect our family information to the early records and perhaps trace my family to the time they arrived in America. I see they are all from the general area of the first Virginia settlement, by that I mean as I learn more about them, they work back in that direction. Many came through Tennessee, North Carolina, & Kentucky. Only one, a Mr. Samuel Clark (mentioned in the Snodgrass record) is from the north. I have thus far not been able to do much with the North Carolina records, as there isn't too much organized material here, and NC will not give any assistance at all.

I have compiled and written my husband's family history already. His people came to America more recently. Except the well-known Clinton family. I have had trouble with that line of his and hope to write an additional section some day if the information becomes available. I did not publish his work, just had good typed copies made up and allow them to circulate.

As you see, the family history work with me is truly a great job. I thoroughly enjoy it, and as time allows, I work on it. I hope you will be able to help me some with the Snodgrasses. I will try to check more Virginia records soon and will pass along any information I can find that I think might help you. You may have far more than I will. I have gotten stuck, so to speak, with the Snodgrasses in Arkansas, and I simply cannot find more. Mr. Dallas Herndon, Arkansas State Library, has had different things searched for me to no avail. Franklin Co. knows nothing of my people. Herndon did find James Wilson Snodgrass's service record, which my daughter seems to have removed from its appointed place. I was fortunate enough to find my Snodgrasses in the census, but there my luck stops. I decided to turn my research to the older people in the hope that I will one day stumble upon the right track and bring them down to my people. This makes the work so much more complicated. I have a feeling my line will connect to the ones I have found. There is a repetition of names, for one thing, to indicate there might be a connection. But I have no actual proof.

You did not say what your fee is. I see you say you are not a professional genealogist, but I still wonder if you have a fee. I can pay some for the information, but we are what you might call average people, and I can't actually hire an entire tree made up for me, much as I would like to do so. I have names of 43 of my ancestors. I am working on the entire family tree, you see, not just one name or line. Therefore it is a really big undertaking. I have some success at times and other times nothing seems to work out. The Denver Public Library is supposed to have a very good collection of material, and they are very helpful and the information is readily available. I want to work more in the Snodgrass records there, as there are a number of things I have not looked into as yet.

I see too that you are the Historian General for the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. Does your organization have a central library and reference department? Does it have research workers available to the public?

I will be looking forward to hearing from you again. Please ask any question you wish to. I will answer all I can, and if I cannot help with answers then I can simply say so.

Yours truly,
Edna M. Branstine, 2000 South Dayton, Denver 20, CO

12 Nov 1956

Dear Mr. Cole,

I received your letter and regret that I have not had an opportunity to answer it before. Since you last heard from me, I have had a daughter who is now eight months old. She has added much to my work as well as to my joy, and I have therefore set my work on the family history aside temporarily. I am still very much interested in it, however, and am very hopeful I will one day be able to find the connecting link that will prove who my oldest known Wm. W. Snodgrass really was and where he was born.

Most respectfully,
Edna M. Branstine, 2000 South Dayton, Denver 22, CO.

P.S. I enclose all of the Snodgrass information I have to date. I made carbon copies of some information I had once. I never thought I would send it to anyone, so I made notes on it. I hope you will excuse them. I am quite rushed, and since I have these copies, messy though they are, I think I will send them and hope you will find the information helpful. I have taken brief notes at random as I searched in the library. I doubted these people were mine, but wished to be safe so kept the notes for further research if I should desire to do so. Therefore I took information down but did not try to get all there was. I may be able to return to the library when my baby is a little older and do more work. If you wish, I will try to get the complete information of any item you find to be of interest.

I have given up tracing my line back step by step. I think if I am ever to find it, I will simply have to search state by state until I find this William W. Snodgrass, and hope that when I do finally find him there will be reference to his son, W. L. Snodgrass, so that I will know him when I do succeed in finding him. It is a wild shot into the dark, but that is all I have left to do.

6 May 1948 -- The Logan Daily News (Logan, Auglaize Co., Ohio) (newspapers.com), Thursday,
6 May 1948:

Fountain Lake, Ark.—Mrs. McGregor Snodgrass had three hobbies—painting, cooking, and sewing. But now they're business. Recently she made a blouse and decorated it by painting symbols of her three hobbies plus her monogram. A neighbor saw it and asked Mrs. Snodgrass to make him a shirt. The fad caught on quickly, and Mrs. Snodgrass is kept busy turning out blouses and shirts with hand-painted symbols.

2 Nov 1898 - Arkansas Democrat Gazette (? town, Arkansas) (Findagrave), 2 Nov 1898:

Center Point, Oct. 31--John B. Snodgrass, living about six miles west of this place, shot and killed his son-in-law George Glover at noon yesterday at the home of the former. There were no eye-witnesses to the tragedy. There had been bad blood between the two men for some time, growing out of the control of a little property by Glover of the children of Mrs. Glover by a former husband. According to the testimony of Snodgrass, who was at home alone at the time, the deceased rode up to the yard fence, got down and hitched his horse and started in the gate, when Snodgrass stepped to the door with a double-barreled shotgun and warned him not to come any further. Deceased said, "I am fixed for you this time," and kept advancing when Snodgrass fired both barrels of his gun, killing Glover instantly. Glover was not armed. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide.

1890 -- The Goodspeed Biographical & Historical Memoirs of Southern Arkansas (1890) page 530-531:

R. S. Chaytor, a prominent resident and ex-county and circuit clerk of Little River County, was born in St. Louis in 1855. His father, Joseph Chaytor, left his native State (Maryland) in early manhood and went to St. Louis, where he met and afterward married Miss Theresa Snodgrass, a native of that city, and the subject of this sketch is one of two surviving members of their family of four children, all boys. His brother D. O. (mention of whom is made elsewhere in this volume), resides at Fulton. The maternal grandfather, Jacob Snodgrass, was one of the earliest settlers of St. Louis, and was prominently identified with the early history of that city. Among the possessions of the Snodgrass family in St. Louis is a lot in the city cemetery, in which all their family, and that of the Chaytors have been buried for two generations, and it is there that both Joseph Chaytor and wife are at rest. The latter passed from life in 1872, and her death was followed two years later by that of her husband, who received his final summons while on a visit to St. Louis. Joseph Chaytor enlisted in the Confederate cause during the late war, serving under Gen. Price. He was a member of Gen. Marmaduke's staff, with the rank of captain. At the close of the war he moved to Texas, and in 1867 came to this county, where he was occupied in farming until his death.

Nancy married Gerald E. (Pete) Grant, also from Springfield, in 1953.

A beloved wife, mother, sister and friend, Nancy will always be remembered for her love of family, her talent as an artist, her wonderful sense of humor and the ability to tell a good story, her love for travel, books, solving puzzles and challenging games. The Grant home and those of many of her friends and relatives are filled with paintings by Nancy that reflected her curiosity about people, objects and places and her talent to capture their likenesses as well as their spirit. Most recently, she was an active member of the River Valley Arts Center and the Hoe and Hope Garden Club where she used her creative talents in the community.

Nancy and Pete, a mechanical engineer, have been partners throughout their 62-year marriage, enjoying all that life has to offer — traveling extensively; creating, designing and building homes together; volunteering and supporting the communities they lived in and contributing to worthy causes. With Pete, she was an avid and curious traveler to most of the continents and frequently to Europe. They lived in Bruxelles, Belgium for several years where Pete was an executive with Volvo. Nancy was always a gracious hostess to friends, family and colleagues. She loved to entertain and to share her home wherever she lived. Among the places Pete and Nan have called home were Peoria, Oswego and Libertyville, Ill.; St. Joseph, Mich.; Gates Mills, Ohio; and most recently Russellville, where they moved from Belgium when Pete retired in 1993.

Nancy is survived by her husband, Pete; one son; one grandson; and one granddaughter; two sisters; one brother; brother-in-law; and sister-in-law. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Louise (Snodgrass) Bogardus and two brothers, David Bogardus and Michael Bogardus, all of Springfield, Ill.

The family wishes to express their deep gratitude to the excellent staff at the UAMS Intensive Care Unit in Little Rock and the staff at the Arkansas Hospice River Valley Home in Russellville for their loving care.

A memorial service will begin at 4 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 30, 2016, at Humphrey Chapel with Reverend Don Erwin will officiating. The family will receive friends following the service at the Chapel. Contributions in lieu of flowers can be made to the Arkansas River Valley Arts Center, 1001 E B St., Russellville, AR 72801 and the Arkansas Hospice River Valley Home, 220 John Babish Lane, Russellville, AR 72801. William Rea Snodgrass--Identified with the banking industry all of his active business life, William Rea Snodgrass, of Little Rock, has obtained a position of much importance in financial circles and holds the esteem of his fellow associates and the general public with whom he has come in contact. He is a man of high character, energetic nature, sound judgment and fine executive capabilities, thoroughly qualified for the position he holds as cashier and vice-president of the Union Trust Company of Little Rock. In addition to his business abilities and qualifications for office in the financial world, Mr. Snodgrass is a citizen of devotion to the best interests of the community, valuable as one of the important units that make up our progressive machinery of commerce. He is a descendant of the Colonial pioneers of America and takes a pride in an active support of patriotic organizations that are based upon the noble principle of permanent preservation of historic traditions.

Born in Howard County, Arkansas, October , 1885, he is a son of William E. Snodgrass, assistant treasurer of the M. M. Cohn Company, a native of Missouri, and of Lula R. (Rea) Snodgrass, of Alabama. Beginning his education in the public schools, he later attended business college and received private tuition. He began his business career with the Union Trust Company as a bookkeeper and ran through the various grades until his appointment in 1920 to be assistant cashier and vice-president of the institution. He is a member of the Lions Club of Little Rock, of the Council of Boy Scouts of America and of the patriotic order of Sons of the American Revolution.

(need date) -- Centennial History of Arkansas (need date)
pages 322-323:

Dr. William Anderson Snodgrass, physician and surgeon of Little Rock and the son of Andrew J. and Elmira (Waterfield) Snodgrass, was born in the town of Murray, Calloway county, Kentucky, in 1872. His father was a native of Johnson county, Tennessee, and the ancestral line in America dates back to two brothers who came to the new world early in the seventeenth century. William Snodgrass, the great-grandfather of Dr. Snodgrass, was a lieutenant colonel in Washington's army during the Revolutionary war and Andrew J. Snodgrass was a soldier in the Civil war, serving with the Confederate forces during the struggle from 1861 until 1865. He is still living and now making his home in Little Rock. The mother of Dr. Snodgrass was a native of Kentucky and is of pioneer stock in both the paternal and maternal lines. On the pages of Kentucky history again and again appears the name of Waterfield and of Welch.

Born in Murray, Calloway county, Kentucky, in 1872, Dr. Snodgrass acquired his early education there but when he was ten years of age his family removed to Arkansas and in Little Rock he completed his public school and collegiate courses, after which he entered the medical department of the University of Arkansas and was graduated with the degree of M.D. in 1896. He ranks high among the surgeons of the south. He has for a quarter of a century been one of the leaders of his profession in Little Rock and for eleven years he occupied the position of demonstrator of anatomy, while for eight years he occupied the chair of clinical surgery in the University of Arkansas. Dr. Snodgrass now devotes his entire time to surgical practice and is on the staff of the City, St. Vincent's and the Baptist Hospitals and for the past seventeen years has been physician to the Arkansas Methodist State Orphanage. He is a member of all the medical societies and has served as secretary of the Pulaski County Medical Society, a position which he filled in the early days, while for two terms he acted as its president. For six years he was chairman of the council of the Arkansas State Medical Society and he also holds membership in the Southern Medical Society and the American Medical Association. He is likewise a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and has ever made it his purpose to keep thoroughly informed concerning the advances that are being made by the leaders in medical and surgical practice. Broad study and investigation keep him in touch with the trend of modern professional thought and progress and he is indeed recognized as one of the leading surgeons of the state. He served in the World war with the rank of major in the Medical Corps and organized the only Red Cross Hospital Unit entered from the state of Arkansas. With this unit he went to France in January, 1918, and in April of the same year was transferred to the regular army in charge of Field Hospital No. 12, thus serving until mustered out in May, 1919.

It was in the year 1898 that Dr. Snodgrass was married to Miss Lelia Phillips, a daughter of John W. Phillips, of Hempstead county, Arkansas, her parents being pioneers in that section of the state. Mr. Phillips is a veteran of the Civil war and is well and popularly known in Arkansas. Dr. and Mrs. Snodgrass have four children: Myra, who is a graduate of the Nashville College and is now the wife of James Murray of Little Rock; Ruth, who is a graduate of the Little Rock high school; William A., Jr., and John Patterson, who are students.

In politics Dr. Snodgrass follows the principles of the democratic party and in religious faith the teachings of the Methodist church. Fraternally he is a Royal Arch Mason. It has been men of the type and character of Dr. Snodgrass who have formed the strong fabric of this state--men who have never ceased to uphold in public aid and in private life the things that are wholesome and righteous and make for the upbuilding of a great commonwealth.

Richard T. Jett, one of the most prominent and influential citizens in the vicinity of Gregory, was born in Kentucky (Barren County) in 1834. His father, R. H. V. Jett, was a native of Virginia, born in 1806. He followed the occupation of milling, and in 1828 was married to Miss Elizabeth Bradley, of Maryland, by which union were born ten children, eight boys and two girls, seven now living, viz.: Mary J. (wife of Gabe Corn), Richard T., Catherine (wife of William Langstay), Albert N., J. S., James F. and G. W. Mr. Jett was a member of the Christian Church, and died in 1872. Richard T. Jett immigrated from Kentucky to Arkansas in 1870, locating in Woodruff County. He turned his attention to the improvement of land and now cultivates some 300 acres, the principal crops being cotton and corn. He has erected a good residence, and enjoys the acquaintance of many residents about Gregory, in the southern portion of the county. The year 1858 witnessed his nuptials with Margaret A. Haden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haden, of Kentucky. To their marriage three children have been given, two girls and one boy: Carrie (wife of Lawrence Richey), Josie (now Mrs. James Snodgrass) and Albert C. Mr. Jett is an expert machinist and followed that business for several years. From 1861 til 1866 he engaged in steamboating, and now has an interest in a large saw-mill, also in partnership with W. J. and E. G. Thompson, Minor Gregory and R. Eldridge in the possession of a gin, the style of the firm being Mill & Gin Co. They run four stands and have the latest improved plans. Mr. Jett possesses any amount of energy, and his having an interest in anything means the successful termination of that enterprise. His refined surroundings and hospitable board ensure for him the respect and esteem of all who know him.
