Close in pursuit was a prominent Shelbyville doctor. He was wild. In Louisville he flourished a pistol, but the police took it. He attempted to buy another pistol, but failed. He got a weapon somehow, but when attempting to annihilate the 'squire, he was told some other man's daughter had been married. His daughter had acted as bridesmaid. The bridal couple had traveled all night in a buggy and had just left when the excited medicine man appeared, or the tragedy would have occurred before the explanation could be made.

^The Tribune (Seymour, Jackson Co., Indiana) (Newspapers.com), Monday, 29 Apr 1929:

Edgar Snodgrass, 40 years old, farmer, and his three young sons were killed when a Baltimore & Ohio passenger train struck their automobile at Marysville [Clark Co., Indiana], southeast of here near Blocher Sunday. The boys are Howard Snodgrass, 17 years old; Henry, 15, high school pupil; and the Snodgrass baby, Wilbur, 5. The boys had attended the Sunday School at the Marysville Christian church and the father was taking them home just as the National-Limited, fast passenger train from Washington and New York city passed through town.

Miss Lillian Harmon, postmistress at Marysville, and several other persons saw Snodgrass drive his car in the path of the limited, which does not stop at Marysville. The automobile was hit squarely and wrecked. The bodies of the four occupants were thrown out and strewn along the track. The train crew stopped to assist Miss Harmon and other residents in picking up the dead. The bodies were taken to the Snodgrass home a mile north of Marysville. Funeral arrangements were incomplete today.

Mrs. Lydia Snodgrass, the widowed mother, is the sole survivor of her family. Snodgrass leaves a mother, Mrs. W. T. Bottorff, of New Washington, Ind.; two brothers; and several half-sisters.

23 Jan 1958 – Charlestown Courier (Charlestown, Indiana), Thursday, 23 Jan 1958:

Probably one of the best-known and most-seen persons about the Sellersburg-Speed communities is Col. A. E. Snodgrass of Speed, Indiana. A retired employee of the Louisville Cement Company, Col. Snodgrass has long been active in area civic affairs and organizations.

By no means to be left out of the picture, is Mrs. Snodgrass, as charming and pleasant an individual as you will ever meet.

Well, to get on with the story, the Snodgrasses are feeling their "youth" this week. Both are 85. They have flown to California to visit Mrs. Snodgrass's brother, J. C. Rous, 79, who resides at Oceanside. They stopped at Indianapolis to pick up another brother, Howard L. Rous, 87, who is a retired pharmacist.

While in California, Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass will celebrate their 56th Wedding Anniversary on January 28. When will the "youngsters" return to Indiana? Well, their daughter, Margaret, stated your guess is as good as mine. Perhaps when they have seen most of the State, and they get homesick, then they will return to their home at Speed.

Mr. Snodgrass is a retired employee of the Louisville Cement Company, active in the Lions Club of Sellersburg and Speed, and a member of the Speed Memorial Church.

His wife and three children, two sons and a daughter, were included in the honor. Mrs. Snodgrass is a Sunday School teacher at the Speed church and was formerly organist there. She is a past president of New Albany District Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

Their daughter, Miss Margaret Snodgrass, is the present organist of the church at Speed, and active in other church and club work. She makes her home with her parents.

Snodgrass is survived by a sister, Mrs. Edna Richey, Jeffersonville.

19 Jul 1962 – Charlestown Courier (Charlestown, Indiana), Thursday, 19 Jul 1962:

Mrs. A. E. Snodgrass spent last week in the Clark County Memorial Hospital, but returned to her home on Sunday, July 15, in time to celebrate her 90th birthday on the 16th, with Mr. Snodgrass and daughter Margaret.

Mrs. Snodgrass was born in Thorntown, Ind., in 1872, and moved to Clark County when she was just four years old. As Margaret Rous, the daughter of a well-known Jeffersonville family, she graduated from Jeffersonville high school.

Over 60 years ago she married Mr. Snodgrass, a young clerk for a cement company, where his father was superintendent. Not long after their marriage, the Snodgrasses moved to Stuttgart, Arkansas, but the love for Clark County was too great, and it was not too many years until they were making their home back in Speed.

She has been an active member of the Speed Memorial Church and the Speed Womens Club since their inception. She served as the teacher of the Ever-ready Womans Class in the Speed Memorial Sunday School from the time of its organization until about a year ago, when she went on the inactive list and became a teacher emeritus.

As a Methodist, Mrs. Snodgrass has always had an active interest in the Sellersburg Methodist Church. For many years there has been a Margaret Snodgrass Circle in the Women's Missionary Society at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass also have two sons: Crawford, who lives at Gurnee, Illinois; and Edmund, who lives at Pittsburgh, Pa. Happy birthday, Mrs. Snodgrass.

12 Nov 1962 – Indiana Death Certificate (Ancestry): Margaret May Snodgrass, died 12 Nov 1962, Jeffersonville, Clark Co., Indiana;

15 Nov 1962 – Charlestown Courier (Charlestown, Indiana), Thursday, 15 Nov 1962:

Memorial services for Mrs. Margaret M. Snodgrass were held in the chapel of the Haas Funeral Home at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, November 14. Mrs. Snodgrass, who was 90, died at the Clark County Memorial Hospital at 10:45 on Monday, November 12, 1962.

She was born at Thorntown, Indiana, the daughter of James Crawford Rous and Almira Jane Howard. Her mother was a member of a pioneer Clark County family. When Mrs. Snodgrass was 6 years of age, the family moved to Clark County, and in 1890 Mrs. Snodgrass was graduated from the Jeffersonville High School.

In 1902 she married Alfred Edmund Snodgrass, who survives. The couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on January 28 of this year. In their early married life they lived in Speed, later moving to Stuttgart, Arkansas, where they lived a short time before returning to Speed in 1925.

Mrs. Snodgrass was a member of the Speed Memorial Church, where she became a teacher of a young woman's class shortly after moving to the community. She continued as a teacher of this until she passed her 88th birthday.

She was raised a Methodist and always maintained her interest in this church. Shortly after coming to Speed she joined the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the Sellersburg Methodist Church. For many years she served as Secretary-Treasurer of this society. A good many years ago the Society named one of its mission circles the Margaret Snodgrass Circle in her honor.

She is a past president of the Speed Woman's Club and for many years served as chairman for the Clark County Tuberculosis Association in Silver Creek Township.

In addition to her husband she is survived by the following: two sons, Edmund Snodgrass of Pittsburgh and Crawford of Chicago, Illinois; a daughter, Mrgaret; a brother, James C. Rous, Vista, Calif.; 6 grandchildren; and 3 great-grandchildren.

6 Apr 1942 – The Tribune (Seymour, Jackson Co., Indiana) (Newspapers.com), Monday, 6 Apr 1942:

Mrs. Mattie Jane Switzer, age eighty-four, widow of Alber M. Switzer and mother of Mayor Stanley A. Switzer, died at the home, 726 Ewing street, at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Death followed an illness of six weeks' duration due to infirmities of her advanced age, and her condition had been critical for several days.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Voss Mortuary with the Rev. John L. Prentice, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in charge. Burial in Riverview Cemetery. Friends may call at the Voss Mortuary at any time.

Mrs. Switzer was born at Lexington, Ind., on March 13, 1858, the daughter of William and Mary Barrett Perkinson, both natives of Ireland. She spent her early life in Scott county, and attended the old State Normal College at Terre Haute, after which she taught in the schools of Scott county for several years.

She was married on October 5, 1882, at Lexington, to Albert M. Switzer, and they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in 1932. Mr. Switzer died on February 7, 1941. They moved to Seymour in 1894, and since residing here, Mrs. Switzer made a host of friends and acquaintances who mourn her death. Many were shocked to hear of her death, being unaware that her condition had reached such a critical state.

Mrs. Switzer had been a member of the Presbyterian Church since girlhood and was a member of women's organizations at the First Presbyterian Church here, in which she was active as long as her health permitted.

She is survived by five children, Mrs. J. P. Snodgrass, of Brownsburg, [Hendricks Co.] Ind.; Carl R. Switzer, of Indianapolis; Mrs. C. M. Spall, of Frankfort, Ind.; Mrs. H. W. Kinsel, of Cincinnati; and Mayor Switzer. Several nieces and nephews also survive.

James P. Snodgrass Recalls Long Career As Educator

At the age of 88, James P. Snodgrass of 345 S. Green St., in Brownsburg can look back on a varied career as a farmer, teacher, school administrator, county prosecutor, and bookkeeper.

A useful and interesting life that was to make him one of the most outstanding men in Hendricks County began in 1878. Mr. Snodgrass was born on a farm seven miles from Frankfort. The nearest town was Boyleston on the old Michigan Road, he recalls.

Later the family moved to a farm three miles east of Kirkland, and young Jim went to a one-room school house in the country. "One room and one teacher," was the way he described it.

For a man who was to become one of the most prominent school administrators in Hendricks county, the farm boy got off to a poor start. He quit school for a time and became a full-time farmer for several years.

"I finally finished school at a rural settlement called Tail Hold, although the post office called it Pickard," Mr. Snodgrass explained.

In those days if you could "make" a teacher's license, you could teach. He passed the test and took over a grade school in 1901 after a teacher quit in mid-year. He was persuaded to teach another year by the school superintendent.

"I had no idea of becoming a teacher," Mr. Snodgrass chuckled, "and still didn't think too much of teaching after nearly two years of it."

However, he was interested enough to come to Danville where he enrolled in old Central Normal College in 1903 and was graduated in 1907. Shortly after graduation the young teacher accepted a position at the little town of Hydro in the Oklahoma Territory.

"I remember that the town was on the old Choctaw and Western Railroad, about 60 miles southwest of Oklahoma City," Mr. Snodgrass recalled, "While I was there the people voted on the state constitution and were admitted to the Union (Nov. 16, 1907)."

Mentally alert despite the fact he is nearing ninety years of age, Mr. Snodgrass chuckled as he recalled his days in the Sooner State. "The capital wasn't in Oklahoma City when they started," he explained. "It was in some little town, and the government records were moved by stealth to Oklahoma City--then the officials just left and never came back."

In 1908 Jim returned to Central Normal College and was in school until 1910. About this time, as he remembers, the Danville school superintendent and the school board asked him to become principal of the town's grade school. It was just two blocks south of the town square, where South Elementary School now stands.

"We had four rooms and about 125-130 students," he continued. "I had three teachers, and I was a teaching principal."

He ran the school for about two years, and then another field of service--politics--beckoned the talented young principal. He decided to run for county prosecutor.

"I was a Democrat in that Republic hotbed," he chuckled. "The vote was two to one for the GOP--same as now."

Mr. Snodgrass had just finished a series of night courses at "CNC" and had received his law degree. He was elected in 1912 and won again in 1914.

"It was a two-year office in those days," he explained, "and I remember very clearly that my first commission as prosecuting attorney was signed by Gov. Thomas R. Marshall." Marshall was later Vice President under President Woodrow Wilson in 1913.

"That Marshall was really a crackerjack," Mr. Snodgrass recalls. "He was always telling funny stories--mostly on himself."

In 1916 he returned to his old job as principal of the Danville grade school. "The school board members were all Republicans, but they took me back," he laughed. "In those days we could fight over an election, and when it was through, we were still good friends--not like today."

He continued teaching there until 1917 when he was elected county school superintendent--a four-year office this time.

In 1921 he left the political field for good and accepted the job of principal of Brownsburg High School and held that office nearly 20 years. Until 1940 there was not a boy or girl graduated from BHS who had not learned to respect the able and affable Mr. Snodgrass.

"I remember that when Fred Roark was in high school, he was always fooling around with welding," the old teacher declared. "He showed so much promise that Allison Division got interested in him, and that is how he got his start."

In 1940, when approaching the age of 64, he resigned his position in Brownsburg, but became a teaching principal at Brown Township Grade School in 1941. He taught the seventh and eighth grades and had a staff of three teachers. Although he had passed the compulsory retirement age, the state waived this requirement each year. Finally, he retired from teaching for good in 1948.

"The superintendent up there (in Brown Township) wanted me to teach another year," he said, "but I was starting to get a little tired in the afternoons." He was then past 70 years of age.

But seven score years did not worry the old teacher. He had never spent much time sitting around. He took the full-time job of bookkeeper in the Brownsburg State Bank the same year he "retired."

"I left the bank in 1952 or 1953--I can't remember which," Mr. Snodgrass mused, "and then I retired for good."

His wife and companion for many years died Aug. 12, 1955, a couple of years after he retired. "If she had lived another month, we would have been married exactly 41 years," he said. They were married in September of 1914.

He fell silent after that. Perhaps he was recalling the years he had spent with his wife, who had a career in her own right. She was Nell Switzer from Seymour and had been a teacher herself for some time in her home town. After her marriage she was a substitute teacher in Brownsburg and Pittsboro for several years. She was also librarian at the Brownsburg Library for some time.

"We met at Central Normal," the old man explained cheerfully. "It was one of those college romances." He didn't seem sad. Maybe he was just remembering the happy and useful life they had together.

Missing Man Drowns in Wrecked Auto

Hendricks county recorded its 25th traffic fatality of the year when the father of five children, reported missing for three days, was found at the bottom of White Lick creek lodged inside a nearly-submerged wrecked automobile.

Dead is Gerald B. Snodgrass, 34, an associate of the One-Hour Cleaners in Plainfield.

Sheriff's deputies said the 1972 Chevrolet must have plunged some 40 feet off the road down a steep embankment before flipping into the water north of here. Divers went into an estimated five feet of water before discovering anyone was in the auto.

A crewman from the Penn Central railroad contacted the sheriff's department reporting that the back left wheel of an automobile was visible in the creek from a train trestle over county Road 625 East. The vehicle was reported at 1:42 p.m. Friday.

Sheriff's department officials were not able to detect whether or not anyone was in the vehicle until the divers went into the water. Sheriff Russell Carmichael first believed the car had been stolen and stripped of parts.

Deputy James Sutherlin said it is believed Snodgrass must have been driving north on the county road sometime Tuesday. The path of the car, according to the deputy, showed the vehicle left the road at a curve and traveled some 200 feet into the creek. Damage to the vehicle showed the car hit a small tree stump, debris along the bank, and finally a larger stump, forcing the vehicle to flip into the creek.

Hendricks county coroner Charles Baker said the cause of death was due to drowning. Deputy sheriff Sutherlin said there was also injury to the chest caused by the steering wheel.

The divers hooked a chain to the vehicle. Wrecker crews from Miller Shell station at Danville, pulled the water-soaked car straight up over the embankment. Snodgrass was then taken from the automobile.

The accident scene was some five miles north of Plainfield, about two miles west of Avon, and on the south side of what is known as the 'haunted bridge', one-half mile south of U.S. 36.

Deputies said Snodgrass was dressed to be outside with several shirts and layers of clothing. Christmas packages were found in the trunk of the car.

The Plainfield man was reported missing when he did not arrive Wednesday to pick his wife up where she works at the Hendricks county hospital.

The widow, Carolyn, survives.

Funeral services were today at the Hall-Baker funeral home with burial in Maple Hill cemetery. The Rev. Bill Cox officiated at the services.

4 Jan 2018 – obituary (Findagrave)

Helen M. Snodgrass, age 96, formerly of Richmond, Indiana, passed away Thursday, January 4, 2018, knowing that she would soon be walking those streets of gold in Heaven with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Born September 27, 1921, in Winchester, Indiana, to Merle and Alta Rickard Hinshaw, Helen lived in Richmond for most of her life. After graduating from Winchester High School, she worked at Anchor Hocking. Helen married Donald Snodgrass and moved to Richmond for several years. Purchasing a farm south of New Paris, Ohio, she became a homemaker where she was known for canning 80 to 100 quarts of green beans and tomatoes in one day from the large garden that her husband planted. Writing letters to cheer up others was another of her favorite pastimes. Helen's favorite place to be was at church worshipping God. She was a member of the First Church of the Nazarene of Richmond for over 65 years. Helen loved attending Bethesda Baptist Church when she and Donald moved to Brownsburg in 2000 to be near their daughter and her family. She loved singing hymns and sang in the Nazarene choir many years ago.

Survivors include her daughter, Janice (Jim) Defibaugh of Brownsburg, Indiana; granddaughter, Jennifer (Michael) Weslotsky of Brownsburg, Indiana; sister-in-law, Phyllis Lovell of Winchester, Indiana; nieces; and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 63 years, Donald V. Snodgrass who died November 29, 2003; a stillborn son; parents; and brothers, James and Howard Hinshaw and Riley Lovell Jr.

We wish to thank Wellbrooke of Avon assisted living and Brownsburg Health Care for the wonderful care they gave Helen in her final years, months, and weeks. Visitation for Helen M. Snodgrass will be from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 10, 2018, at First Church of the Nazarene, 1600 Chester Boulevard, Richmond. Funeral service will follow at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 10, 2018, at First Church of the Nazarene with Rev. Ron Karkosky and Rev. Robert Malone officiating. Burial will be in Spring Lawn Cemetery in New Paris, Ohio. Arrangements are being handled by Doan & Mills Funeral Home, 790 National Road West, Richmond.

Honeysuckle Home, Hanover, R.D. 1, Indiana, 10 Aug 1915.

...as per Request... I herewith enclose a certified copy of the license issued to George K. Snodgrass & Cordelia Broadwell, 28 Dec 1872. Their marriage took place here, in the home of my parents, Mr. & Mrs. D. P. Monroe. The latter is a sister of said Cordelia Broadwell.

I have been trying to find some old timer who could give me some information pertaining to the first marriage, but have been disappointed, as she, the first wife, was but little known in this community, having come here from the south with two brothers, as refuges, but a few years before her marriage to deceased Snodgrass. They were married, at least their license was issued, 21 Feb 1866. Her name was Louisa Anna Nichols.

We know of but one probable way to secure the exact facts of this former marriage, their divorce, her second marriage and death (all of these things seem to be considered well known facts among the old timers, but aside from the marriage license, I have not been able to find an atom of proof of anything), which would be to write to Mrs. Mattie Swan, Lazier, Colo., and if she does not know, she might be able to get the facts from some of her deceased sister's children, this sister having married a brother of Louisa Anna Nichols. I was told by our clerk, Edw. M. Pernett, that the laws of this state do not require this extra information concerning a former marriage. Both licenses were issued at the same place, they (deceased and last wife) have lived together over forty years, unquestioned (and some more points too legal and bigwordy to remember) and that made it an O.K. fact that she was entitled to pension, etc. I am afraid I have not helped very much, but have done best I could. Will be glad to assist any way I can.

Sincerely yours,
[signed] Cordelia M. Eldridge

(need date) – Query: Need proof of parents of James Snodgrass, died 1849 Martin Co., Indiana, married Rachel Cox 22 Oct 1808 Botetourt Co., Virginia. Group sheet from Scott Hosier showed James as son of Alexander Snodgrass & Rebecca Dever, however, the will of Rebecca in 1827 lists children as Mary, Rebecca, John, and Sarah. Land Sales in 1834 show heirs as Martha and Ann in addition to John and Sarah listed above. In 1838 Robert sold his 1/10 share as an heir of Alexander. In 1840, land sale listed heirs as Josiah, Christian, and Aaron, and Rebecca listed previously. This totals 10 children as indicated in the sale by Robert as 1/10 owner of land. Could Martha & Mary be the same person, or does James belong to a different family?

26 May 1916 – The Gosport Reporter (Gosport, Indiana), Thursday, May 26, 1916:

David H. Snodgrass, one of the substantial farmers of this county, died at his home farm, "Fair View," on May 17th, 1916. He was buried May 20th, 1916 at Hudson Hill Cemetery. Funeral services conducted by Rev Thom of the Methodist church of this place. His residence, which is a large and beautiful home, was not large enough to contain the great number of neighbors and friends who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect and love. Beautiful music was rendered by a quartet from the Methodist church. Quite a number of relatives and friends came from distant points.

David H. Snodgrass, son of William Snodgrass and Sarah Ann Halbert Snodgrass, was born December 30th, 1852. Died May 17th, 1916, age 63 years, 4 months and 17 days. He was born on the farm where he has lived for the last 8 years and was the fifth child of eight children born to his parents, there being 4 boys and 4 girls. Of these brothers and sisters five survive him, being John Snodgrass, George Snodgrass and Minervia Stierwalt, who live in and about Gosport, Indiana, and Nancy White of Chicago, Ill., and Belle Palmer, of Whittier, California. When his father sold the home place about 1875 and moved to Spencer, Ind., David went with the family and lived there with them until he decided to go west when he chose the State of Nebraska as his home. Here, on March 21, 1901, he was married to Bessie R. Deem and followed the business of farming and stock raising, in which he was successful, and in 1908 he came back to Indiana and purchased the old farm on which he was born, and erected a fine home and resided here until his death. To him were born three children: a daughter, Vyra, and two sons, William and Harold, all of whom survive the father. He was of a modest and unassuming disposition, a faithful husband, an indulgent father, a good and helpful neighbor and always interested in any movement that had for its object the betterment of the moral life of the community and lived honestly with all.

He was ever anxious for the welfare of his children, patient in the trials of life and ready to accommodate and aid those who were in his circle of acquaintances, whosoever they might be. He was extremely appreciative of a favor extended to him and anxious to render return therefor. He was a converted man and a Christian and died in the faith. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.

 1 Jul 1836 – The Pittsburgh Gazette (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania), Friday, 1 Jul 1836:

Awful Disaster on the Rob Roy.

Steam Boat Rob Roy, four miles above Columbia, Arkansas, Thursday, 9th June 1836.

The steam boat Rob Roy, Hugh Findren, master, left New Orleans, on Sunday, the 5th inst., at 11 o'clock, a.m., bound for Louisville, and proceeded on her voyage ...until this evening at six o'clock. One of the flues in the starboard boiler collapsed, tearing it partly from the boiler head at both ends. ...To give a description of the scene of destruction and suffering would be impossible. Annexed you will find the names of those who were found on deck and taken from the water, and also of two men who we know were drowned or killed, but who have not been seen. The number lost in the river cannot be accurately known, perhaps not more than 3 or 4 besides those enumerated in the list.

List of persons scalded by collapse of flue on Rob Roy.
