Hiram C. Snodgrass Dies After Long Illness

Hiram Calvin Snodgrass died at his home here Saturday night about 11 o'clock after an illness which had extended over a number of years. He was a native of Ohio and came to Vandalia many years ago when coal and other minerals were discovered here. He was one of the men who had been vitally interested and responsible for the vast resources which underlie our community was developed. He was one of the organizers of the Standard Coal Co., which did such flourishing business here when the conditions for mining coal were better than at present. He was a man who labored hard and saved his earnings, investing in city properties which he lived to see worth more than he gave when he purchased them. He was always energetic and thrifty and in the last few years of his life took chances at work that resulted in injuries, which greatly incapacitated him. Several months he wrestled with injuries in the hospital and was slowly recovering. His recent illness was more malignant, and his death was expected.

He was married to Miss Mary A. Farnsworth Feb. 8, 1885, to which union three children were born, one, Clarence, dying in infancy.

His funeral was conducted from the Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Arnold Tulloh, and interment was in the Vandalia cemetery.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Miss Anna Mary at home, and Mrs. Pearl Brohard of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been here for the past month at her father's bedside; two grandchildren, Mrs. Gayle Ayers and Marion Bronhard of Los Angeles; four sisters, Mrs. Jennie Turnbull of this city, Mrs. Elizabeth Pierce, Mrs. Rose Tuneson, Mrs. Rachel Rice; one brother, George Snodgrass of Oklahoma, and a number of other relatives.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved families in their sorrow.

Mrs. Mary Snodgrass of Vandalia died at the Audrain hospital Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and the body was taken to Vandalia for burial. Mrs. Snodgrass was born December 25, 1860. She has been a patient at the hospital since Jan. 16. A daughter, Mrs. Pearl Traynor of Vandalia survives.

8 Feb 1945 – The Vandalia Leader (Vandalia, Missouri), 8 Feb 1945:

The Peaceful end came to the life and activities of Mrs. Mary C. Snodgrass, age 84 years, in the Audrain hospital, Tuesday, Feb. 6, after she had entered a few days before. Her condition has been growing worse for some time and it has been known that she could not survive. Her death was expected. Mrs. Snodgrass was a native of Spencerburg, the daughter of Thornton and Hannah Farnsworth. She was united in marriage to Hiram C. Snodgrass in 1884, and two children were born to this union. Her life has been spent in Pike County until they moved to Vandalia where she resided until her death. She was a lady of rare sympathies and was greatly beloved. She was a devout Methodist and to this faith and teaching she was constant and true. During her health she was faithful in her attendance and with her support.

Funeral services will be held from the Smith Funeral Home Friday afternoon by Rev. K. T. Davis. Interment in Vandalia Cemetery.

She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Pearl Drainer[sic] and Miss Anna Mae, both of the home, one brother, G. M. Farnsworth of Overland, Mo., and many other relatives and a host of friends. We join with the friends of the departed in extending our sympathies to the bereaved.

Burger Family

The Burger name tends to come from Southern German, Holland, or Switzerland. Where our particular line originated, I don't know. The earliest known Burger in our line was a farmer named George, who was my great, great, great grandfather. It is believed that his wife's name was Elizabeth. I know little about them other than that they had seven children: Henry, Mrs. Sarah Carey, Joseph, Mrs. Lewana Son (or Williamson), Mrs. Nancy Harris, Mrs. Saline Snodgrass, and Mrs Patsy Harraman. Of these, Henry was my great-great-grandfather.

Henry was born 15 Dec 1805 or 22 Nov 1806 in TN. 23 Jun 1833 he married Mary L. "Polly" Titsworth in Cooper Co., Missouri. She was the daughter of John Gabriel and Nancy (Taylor) Titsworth.

3 Aug 1883 – Liberty Tribune (Liberty, Clay Co., Missouri), 3 Aug 1883:

Our people were shocked to learn that John S. Martin, an old and well known citizen of this county, who lived north of town a few miles, had been found dead, Tues, on the road near the Ligon school house, where he and his horse had evidently been killed by lightning the night before. Mr. Martin was a wealthy farmer and had resided in this county about 30 years. He was father-in-law of Marion Snodgrass, for whom he was security for a large amount, in consequence of which his financial affairs were considerably involved. Added to this, a cloud had settled upon his domestic relations threatening a rupture of his family ties.

Lebanon, Missouri, 4 Aug 1931

My Dear Mr. Cole,

I am wondering if you will ever find it in your heart to forgive my neglect. Yes, I received your letter of June 2, and fully intended to answer it right away, but the summer has been so terribly hot and my health has been unsatisfactory, and feeling as I did, it was easy to procrastinate. I assure you, I was very much ashamed of my impoliteness when I received your letter yesterday.

I will be so glad to get the Alabama Snodgrass line. The family is so large--all had large families, that it seems almost impossible to establish certain relationships back two or three generations. You will notice in my line that my great-grandfather, Isaac Snodgrass, had seventeen children. Sixteen of these reached maturity. One boy died in infancy, which accounts for two boys being named "Larkin". My great-great-grandmother Thompson was a Larkin.

These thirteen boys that grew to manhood, every one of them, at some period of their life, acquired a fortune. The girl named Elizabeth married a Delany and was known as the most beautiful woman of her day in the State of Kentucky.

It is a little unclear just how I am connected with S. M. Snodgrass, but I think he and my mother were first cousins. S. M. resembles an aunt of mine close enough to be her brother. In fact, she is much more like S. M. than she is like her own brother.

I have found much additional, scrappy information since I completed my line for D.A.R. In place of the three boys coming to America, there were four. The other was named John. This John was a Member of the Virginia House of Burgesses several years before the Revolution.

The Snodgrass family is scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. One David Snodgrass, descendant of the first James mentioned, was married three times and was the father of 20 children. There is one, I think his name is David, living at Altus[?], Oklahoma. He is very old, but he was for years the greatest criminal lawyer Tennessee ever had. He is a contrary old "codger," and will not answer any letters or have anything to do with preserving family history or tradition. He wore my patience threadbare and yet some more when I was trying to establish my line.

If I think of any more interesting data, I will let you know. I appreciate your ___ and I find I have no additional stamps so I will ask your pardon for not putting on sufficient postage.

I hope to hear from you again soon.

Sincerely yours, Mrs. L. B. Browning, Lebanon, Missouri.

Please note carefully my maiden name. It was "Word". It is so often called and spelled Ward, which is all wrong. All the Wards are from the Words, but continually misspelling gave the name a foundation.

Lebanon, Missouri, 23 May 1931

My dear Mr. Cole,

Your letter received this afternoon and will answer at once. My mother was Mary Snodgrass, daughter of John Snodgrass and Lucinda Henderson. My mother was born in Rock Castle Co., Kentucky. Her father was born in Tennessee while the family was enroute from Botetourt Co., Virginia, to Lincoln Co., Kentucky. Washington Co., Virginia, was carved from Botetourt.

My grandfather, John Snodgrass, was the son of Isaac Snodgrass and Jane Thompson. John Snodgrass was one of 17 children, 16 of whom lived to be grown. There were 14 boys and 3 girls, one boy dying in infancy. The 13 boys all amassed fortunes sometime during their lives.

Isaac Snodgrass was the son of Joseph Snodgrass and Mary Bartley. There were ten children. Joseph Snodgrass was ensign in the Rev. War. This Joseph Snodgrass was the son of William Snodgrass and Elizabeth Clanahan.

My data with all names is in the bank, and as I work all day, I do not know just when I can get [it] or whether you will be interested. My mother has one brother living in Clinton Co., this state, Marion Snodgrass. There is a cousin in Wichita. His name is William Snodgrass, N. Wichita.

There are many relatives living around and in Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. From the earliest history, this family had the real pioneer spirit. Honorable, loyal, and patriotic. The Joseph Snodgrass mentioned here came to Botetourt Co. when it was a wilderness. He then was wealthy for those days. There must have been quite a colony with him, for he felt that there must be a minister live among them to marry their young people and bury their dead. So he went horseback two or three hundred miles and brought back with him a minister named Cummings. Joseph gave him 160 acres of land and he preached for them more than forty years. This minister took an active part in the Rev. (This minister went back to marry Thomas Lincoln & Nancy Hanks.)

To show you how the spirit was handed down, when my grandfather, John Snodgrass, came to Clinton Co., Missouri, in 1855, there were no cemeteries nearer than 12 miles, so he deeded to Clinton Co. several acres of land as a burial place for their dead. He wanted no man buried in the Potters Field. A Baptist church was built on this plot of ground, and it seemed to be forgotten, at least no one thought anything about it, until the question came up when they were going to build a new church. This developed into quite a controversy concerning the ownership of the cemetery. On looking up the records, they found it deeded to Clinton Co. by John Snodgrass for honorable burial of the dead.

I am a D.A.R. through ten approved lines:
Joseph Snodgrass, ensign
James Thompson, captain
Charles Word, fifer
Thomas Williams, ensign
Moses Renfro, colonizer
James Renfro, patriot
Joseph Renfro, Committee of Safety (Joseph Renfro m. Mary Randolph)
Thomas Owsley, captain
James Henderson (Valley Forge)
Benjamin Burch, with Washington
James Henderson, Lieut, son of the first James Henderson.

You will notice there are three Renfros, which is a little unusual. Moses Renfro married his own cousin, Hannah Renfro, daughter of Joseph & Mary Randolph. Their history is thrilling. James Renfro is the son of Moses and Hannah Renfro. Moses Renfro and his 17 year old son James were the only white men saved from the terrible Indian Massacre at Battle Creek, Tennessee.

The family is now pretty well gone. Moses Renfro was a Baptist preacher and preached his last sermon the day he was 96. He was born 1728. His second wife, Elisabeth Turpin, came to Missouri in 1835 in an ox wagon. All the way from Garrard Co., Kentucky, to Calloway Co., Missouri, when she was 100 years old. She lived to be 115, and is buried in Calloway Co.

I can prove my descent through two lines, the Renfro and Randolph, to Pocahontas.

You may not care for all this "lingo," but if you are really interested in genealogy you will.

Pardon this long letter, and anything I can do to help shall be glad to do so. Cousin Sam Snodgrass refers all inquiries to me. I tell him he does not want to bother.

Sincerely yours, Mrs. L. B. Browning.

Genealogy of the Snodgrass Family

Compiled from Census of 1790, Botetourt Co. Records, & Family Records.

Submitted to Redmond S. Cole by Mrs. L. B. Browning, Lebanon, Missouri, 4 Aug 1931.

In the latter part of the 17th Century, the three Snodgrass brothers, William, Joseph, and James, seeking religious freedom came to America and settled in Virginia, later moving into Southwest Va, Botetourt Co. They came from County of Cork, Ireland. They were noted for their keenness of intellect, courage, and general ability in frontier work.

The Joseph Snodgrass mentioned above was the founder of our family in America.

William Snodgrass son of Joseph Snodgrass was born in Virginia, 7 Mar 1714, and died 15 Dec 1790. His will taken from Botetourt Co. records, dated 18 Dec 1789, and probated 11 Jan 1791, mentions his wife Isabella McClanahan, and sons Joseph, James, William, and John. Daus. Shusan Tweedy, Jain Fisher, Margaret Seele [Steele], Elender George, and Isabella McClanahan.

Isabella McClanahan, daughter of David McClanahan, was born 15 May 1723; married William Snodgrass 25 Dec 1739. She died 4 Apr 1793.

Joseph Snodgrass, oldest son of William and Isabella Snodgrass[error: Joseph was the son of Joseph Snodgrass and Hannah Vernon], was born 26 Sep 1741, d. 15 Aug 1809. He married Mary Bartley[error: his wife was Mary Walker, daughter of William Walker who died 1810 in Botetourt Co., Virginia] 7 Jul 1771 [error: They got married about 1778; the first DAR application said "married ? ? 1771; the second application turned the question marks into sevens and made it 7 Jul 1771]. She died 16 Mar 1812. To them were born eleven children, eight sons and three daughters.

[Note: Two Joseph Snodgrasses are mixed together here: Joseph s/o William & Isabella, and Joseph s/o Joseph and Hannah. This may be why the birth & marriage dates for Joseph & Mary Bartley don't fit logically with when "their" children were born. It could be that these birth & marriage dates fit Joseph, the real son of William & Isabella.

Sons: Robert, John, Joseph, Isaac, William, George, Bartley, & Henry.
Daus.: Polly, Caroline, & Elizabeth St. Clair.

The will of Joseph Snodgrass [son of Joseph Snodgrass & Hannah Vernon] was dated 20 Jul 1809; probated Sep 1809.

preached for them 40 years.

Isaac Snodgrass, son of Joseph and Mary Snodgrass, was born in Botetourt Co., Virginia, 6 Feb 1781; d. in Kentucky 28 Oct 1857.

He married Jane (Jenny) Thompson, who was born 20 Mar 1790, and died 25 Nov 1857. They married 5 Mar 1805.

To them were born seventeen children, 14 sons and three daughters.
Sons: James, Walker, Calvin, Robert, John, Isaac, Joseph, Larkin I, Andrew Jackson, George, Larkin II, Frances Marion, Seneca, and William Jasper.
Daughters: Nancy, Elizabeth, and Sally.

John Snodgrass, son of Isaac and Jane Snodgrass, was born in Tenn., 6 May 1815, died 14 May 1880. He married Lucinda Henderson, daughter of Judge Henderson of Rock Castle Co., Kentucky. Lucinda Henderson was born 28 Oct 1824, died 18 Mar 1896. They were married 3 Sep 1842.

13 Mar 1882 – Atchison Daily Patriot (Atchison, Atchison Co., Kansas), Monday, 13 Mar 1882:
Hannibal, [Marion Co.], Mo., March 13.—An Illinois detective was in the city to-day in search of a man giving the name of Charles Snodgrass and the wife of a wealthy farmer named Carnes, who eloped from the latter's home near Griggsville, Ill., a few days ago, while the husband of the woman was in Chicago. Mr. Carnes had employed Snodgrass to do some plastering on his house, and during the absence of the farmer, Snodgrass had gained the affections of his wife and proposed an elopement. No clue to the whereabouts of the missing pair has been found here, and it is supposed they have left Hannibal for some Western city. They took a considerable sum of money. Mr. Carnes, the husband of the faithless woman, is said to be worth a $100,000.

John Snodgrass family (Monroe Co., Missouri)

In 1932 there lived at Nowata, Oklahoma, a man named John Jefferson Snodgrass, born Trenton, Missouri, 23 Oct 1849. This man, writing through his daughter, Mrs. R. O. Whitechurch, 142 S. 22 Oct 1883 - Susan Jane Snodgrass, wife of G. W., b. 10 Apr 1856, d. 22 Oct 1883, buried Worland Cemetery, Montgomery City, Montgomery Co., Missouri.

1919 - George W. Snodgrass, b. 1852, d. 1919, buried Worland Cemetery, Montgomery City, Montgomery Co., Missouri.

(unknown newspaper), Aug 1919:

Mr. George W. Snodgrass was born in Kentucky near the Virginia line April 9, 1852, and died very suddenly at his home in Montgomery of heart trouble August 15, 1919, aged 67 years, 3 months and 26 days. His parents both died when he was quite young, leaving him an orphan boy; his uncle took him to his home and so George found again a pleasant home in his boyhood days, but the Civil War coming on, his uncle enlisted in the army and was killed in battle and his home broken up, so George was again deprived of a home; he remained in Kentucky working wherever he could find work, until he was eighteen years old. He then went to St. Louis and after remaining there some months he came to Montgomery and found a pleasant home with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goodrich, in and around Montgomery where he spent the greater part of his life. On April 13, 1879, he was married to Miss Jennie C. Worland; their married life was happy but very short, his wife only living about three years and six months after their marriage. This union was blessed with one daughter, Mary C., now Mrs. Lee Pemberton of St. Louis. His second marriage was to Mrs. Mollie W. Cobb of Columbia. This marriage occurred in Columbia, June 2, 1904, and he lived happily until the close of his life. Mr. Snodgrass was a kind and loving husband and father, a good neighbor, an excellent citizen.

The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. S. F. Taylor and Rev. R. E. McQuie in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, after which his remains were laid to rest in the Worland Cemetery.

12 Oct 1946 – Atchison Daily Globe (Atchison, Atchison Co., Kansas), 12 Oct 1946:

Moberly, [Randolph Co.], Mo., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Charles Snodgrass, English war bride, who joined her husband here last April, was perplexed to find herself in a four-way marital tie-up which will take a divorce and two marriages to untangle. Sheriff Amos Magruder related this story:

Snodgrass and his first wife were separated in 1937 with the mutual understanding that she would obtain a divorce. He enlisted as a single man when the United States entered the war, and while on duty in England, was granted permission to marry the English girl. His past wife, in the meantime, married Harold Clayburg, Canton, Ill., thinking that Snodgrass had been killed. Snodgrass discovered the mix-up when he was collecting papers to apply for GI on the farm training. The sheriff said Snodgrass and his first wife must now obtain a divorce, and then both couples must be married again.

20 Aug 1956

Mr. Carl Snodgrass, 508 Barrow St., Moberly, Missouri

Dear Mr. Snodgrass,

I am not of the Snodgrass family, but do have scores of cousins who live in Virginia and elsewhere, who are of the Snodgrass Clan. Many of the Snodgrass blook[sic] intermarried with my Edmiston and Cole Families, and it was while trying to trace these kinfolks of mine that I ran across some people of the West who also claim connection with the Washington Co., Virginia, Snodgrasses.

If I am correctly advised by a lady in California and Rev. H. E. Snodgrass of Lawton, Oklahoma, you are somehow related to a family from Virginia which removed to Monroe Co., Missouri, or a nearby county, about 90 or more years ago. One of the men who came west [was] Hyter Snodgrass. I suspect that you are of the Hyter Snodgrass family. The California lady, Julia Snodgrass Roseberry, said that Joseph Snodgrass went west during the gold rush and was murdered on the way home. This lady was a daughter of Hyter Snodgrass and a niece of California Joe.

What I am trying to do is to connect these Missourians, brothers and sisters who "went West" with the earlier generations of Snodgrasses, who remained in Virginia. I am sure you can help me. I do not want more than your recollections of the family connections. The enclosed questionnaire will show what I wish to get. Your prompt reply to this by filling out the enclosed questionnaire will be greatly appreciated.

Yours Very Truly, Redmond S. Cole

P.S. I am a nephew by marriage to Uncle Tom Cross, formerly head of the T. J. Cross Lumber Company of Moberly.

[Note added later] I spent a half hour with this man at Moberly this summer. He is a retired railroader. His clan came out of Washington Co., Virginia. I will send his story some time, but return this when you have read it. I have also visited a Snodgrass at Eldorado Springs, Virginia, a descendant of both Black Joe and White Joe Snodgrass. RSC 7 Oct 1956. To be returned.
