Document #5

Mr. Benj Pugh.

Bashor, Colorado. Bennett Co. February 14, 1912.

My Dear Mr. Pugh:

I am sending you the monthly report and the names of those children in the district.

I have noticed when I received my last month's warrant that you had it dated the 19th.

When you and Mr. Snodgrass were down I asked if I kept school, during the Teacher's convention, if it would make up the time I lost at Christmas during the examination. Did I understand you wrong by where you said it would make that time up. I kept school during those days and that you meant that those two days were given to us as did several other boards that I know of.

Report for month ending February 13, 1912 (etc.)

Very Truly, Hazelle L. House.

John A. Snodgrass, 61-M-IN hired man

Surface Creek Champion (? Town, Colorado) (Findagrave), 8 Oct 1936:

Funeral services for John A. Snodgrass, who died in his sleep last Wednesday, were held Sunday afternoon at the Cedaredge Community Church with Rev. Rufus D. Webster in charge of the service. Old time friends of Cedaredge and Hotchkiss were pallbearers. Interment in the Cedaredge cemetery.

John A. Snodgrass, son of George and Marian Snodgrass was born in Jefferson county, Indiana, on June 10, 1858, and passed from this life at his home in Cedaredge, on September 30, 1936, at the age of 78 years, 3 months and 20 days. As a young man he removed to Kansas, homesteading a farm near Ransom, Ness county, making thus a home for himself and his mother. After his mother's death in 1899 he traveled a great deal—from north to south and from east to west—and finally located at Cedaredge, which was, to his notion, the garden spot of the world. In 1923-24 he built the home which he occupied until his death. This home has been one of the beauty spots of the county, and people came from far and near to see his flowers. The happiest days of his life were when he was explaining to his friends the origin and names of each flower.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Mattie Swan, of Pomona, Kansas, several nieces and nephews and a large circle of friends.

5 Apr 1982 – The Denver Post (Denver, Colorado), 5 Apr 1982:

LISTEN, FEDS! CLOEE'S ALIVE, AND REAL MAD

by Pat McGraw, Denver Post Staff Writer

Cloee Snodgrass wants President Reagan's help to convince the U.S. Office of Personnel Management she isn't dead.

Mrs. Snodgrass has been telling them for months--over the phone and through the mail--she isn't deceased.

Instead she is "just mad as hell."

In a telephone interview Sunday, the 66-year-old Fort Collins woman said she was first informed of her "death" last February when a letter from the government agency to "Heirs of Cloee Dean Snodgrass" reported that a widow's pension check had been mailed after her death.

The form letter asked Mrs. Snodgrass's survivors to "Please furnish the date of death and return all checks received thereafter."

In a letter to President Reagan which Mrs. Snodgrass mailed Saturday night, she listed the long-distance calls she has made to Washington from her home in Fort Collins "to get this straightened out and tell them I am not dead and need those checks, but have been unable to get it across to them that I am not dead.

"I am not getting my checks, either. The only results from all this is a telephone bill and no checks...

"Mr. Reagan, I am not dead (and) where and how this government came by this opinion I do not know."

In a more conciliatory vein, Mrs. Snodgrass wrote the president, "You need the backing of every live person who believes in what you are trying to do for our country and I would like to be alive to help, not written off as dead."

She said she continues to receive, $372 a month from the state on a disability pension and $193 from the Social Security Administration, so apparently not all government agencies think she has departed this world.

Neither has Colorado State University, which has accepted her for enrollment to continue the art and weaving study she began at the Community College of Denver, Red Rocks campus, when she lived in Golden. She said she hopes to earn a degree and perhaps open a small shop eventually.

The money from the Office of Personnel Management, $158.05 a month, already is budgeted for tuition, and without that she probably can't afford to go to school, she said.

Mrs. Snodgrass said she began receiving the money after her husband, Harry, a civilian employee of the Army Corps of Engineers, died in 1956. The widow's benefit came regularly until last January, but she said she figured that month's check was delayed because of the annual Christmas-time postal pileup.

The January check never did come, she said, but she got the February payment, followed a few days later by the request for its return.

Since then she has been trying to convince the government she is still with us. Last month she asked U.S. Rep. Hank Brown, R-Colo., to check it out, but without any results so far. A spokesman for Brown said Sunday the matter will be investigated further.

9 Nov 2019 – (obituary) (Findagrave):

Charlene Joyce Wood "Our SUGAR"

February 23,1931 - November 9,2019

Charlene was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to Charles Martin and Willie Pearl Snodgrass. She was second in line of three children having two brothers, Beal and James. Her family moved soon after her birth to a farm in rural Oklahoma where she rode a pony to school every day. We never heard the, I walked to school uphill in the snow barefoot stories from her. She always told everyone how grateful she was living on the farm during the depression because her family never went without the things needed.

By the time Charlene reached her early teens her family moved back to Oklahoma City to live near her grandparents.

While in high school she joined the band and became the first female drum major in Oklahoma. She always remembered the fun she had leading the Central High School Band through the downtown streets of Oklahoma City. She could twirl her baton with the very best and sometimes performed with fire.

After high school she married her life-long love, George Herbert Wood, who preceded her in death in 1995. The two went on to have six children, moving many places across the United States while George worked in the aerospace industry. Every new city would be a challenge for Charlene to make a beautiful home for her ever-growing family. Each stop would find her becoming a Brownie leader, Girl Scout leader, or Den Mother to keep her kids entertained and busy.

Any adventure, no matter her age, she was ready, willing and able, many times traveling with her grown children and grandchildren. She loved Disney World and Universal Studios and would be the first in line to ride the steel roller coasters, even being pushed in a wheelchair when she couldn't walk, to get on.

She loved going to the lake house and spending hours on the pontoon to watch grandkids ski or just to ride. Wherever her kids and grandkids were, she wanted to be with them.

Everything she did in her life was first for her children then for her grandchildren. The grandkids were the very light of her life. They could do no wrong in her eyes, and she loved and accepted everything about them. Every single one was her favorite, and every single one felt it. Her thoughts were always for her family, even passing away on George's Birthday to go home to him.

Charlene was a kind, generous, accepting, loving soul. Even with so many family members there was always room for more to love. We are all better people for knowing her. She will be forever missed by everyone who knew her.

To quote her words so we can tell her how much we all individually feel about her, "I love you, Sugar!"

Charlene was preceded in death by husband George, daughter Charmian, granddaughter Jessica. Survived by children, Gloria (Mark) Wessbecker, Dixie Bishop, Charles (Drea) Wood, George (Kerry) Wood, Amzie (Scott) Grant; grandchildren, Eric (Karin) Wessbecker, Jason (Trish) Wessbecker, Tyler (Becky) Bishop, Natalie Bishop, Ivy Bishop (William Thieme), Melissa Wood, Amber (Greg) Krasnodebski, Joshua (Kassie) Wood, Christina (Tomas) McClain, Sean Grant, Kyle Turnbull, Kasey (Candice) Turnbull, Jeremy (Cameron) Carlblom.

Funeral Services will be held Monday, November 18 at 1:00 p.m. at Drinkwine Family Chapel.

23 Dec 1985 – Rocky Mountain Business Journal:

Crested Butte Announces Major Expansion Plan, by Steve Marsh.

Since Winter Park announced plans to double its ski terrain earlier this year, Crested Butte [Gunnison Co.] has jumped on the bandwagon with a construction announcement of similar magnitude.

The Mount Crested Butte resort recently approved a master plan for development of base facilities, condominiums, townhomes, a major hotel, and restaurants on a 140-acre site adjoining its existing ski village.

To encourage new construction of at least 1,900 condominiums and a 300-room hotel, town planners are ready to break ground on undeveloped Snodgrass Mountain, located opposite the existing ski mountain. It will be connected to the main chairlift system with a new lift designed to run above the base village.

Announcement of new construction plans came days before the town's new $65 million, 263-room Grand Butte Hotel opened for business.

The new portion of Mount Crested Butte's base village has been in planning stages for two years and will include a 200,000-square-foot outdoor mall built to strict covenant requirements.

The new ski mountain will have 400 acres of intermediate and expert trails and will give the resort a capacity of 11,000 skiers per day, almost double its current size.

Developers of the proposed base village at the foot of Snodgrass Mountain will build under strict design covenants that monitor exterior materials, height restrictions and preservation of open space. Residential units will be limited to 13 per acre.

Grand plans also allow for construction of a 350-room hotel in the new village and a system of 11 new chairlifts on Snodgrass Mountain, said Mount Crested Butte planning director Paul O'Connor. He questioned the projected $25 million cost of developing new ski trails, however, saying: "I think $24 million could be spent on snowmaking alone."

The cost of competition has led to a new announcement of another $11 million expansion of the nearby Gunnison airport. Now jet-capable and served by American Airlines, the airport has received a multimillion-dollar shot in the arm during the past two years.

That expansion has Crested Butte anticipating a 30 percent increase in skier visits this year. That hope, O'Connor said, "has everyone sitting on the edge of their chairs."

If tourism increases according to plan, construction on the new ski mountain would begin next summer <1986>, said Gus Larkin, vice president of Crested Butte Mountain Resort Inc.

10 May 1910 – (obituary) (Findagrave)

After an illness of five weeks with dropsy of the heart, Mrs. Aurilla Snodgrass, a pioneer of Golden, passed away at her home in this city at 2:30 Tuesday morning. Mrs. Snodgrass had reached the age of 80 years, nearly fifty of which had been spent right here in Golden. She was born in Greensburg, Indiana, August 20, 1830. She was married to John McCullough Snodgrass in 1847. From Indiana they went to Missouri and Iowa, coming to Golden early in the summer of 1863.

Of her five daughters and three sons, she leaves Mrs. Dora Clark, Mrs. Harrison, J. A. and A. B. Snodgrass of Golden, also Mrs. J. M. McKeen of Denver. She is also survived by a sister of 89 years at Shambaugh, Iowa, as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Deceased was possessed of a most beautiful and Christian character, and her death will bring sorrow to many homes. She was prepared for death, and since the death of her husband, seven years ago, had rather wanted to go. Her mind was perfectly clear to the last, and she arranged all the details of her funeral. The funeral services are to be conducted at the home on Ford street at 2:30 this afternoon.

9 Jan 2019 – (obituary? or bio?) (Findagrave)

Mary [Ellen (Snodgrass) Skidmore] was born at home on Russel Street, but her family moved to Denver when she was 3 years old. She grew up in east Denver on Krameria Street, across the street from her elementary school and in walking distance from Montclair Baptist Church where she accepted Jesus as her personal Lord and Savior as a young girl. She was involved in Youth for Christ outreach and numerous Bible studies. After graduating from East High School in 1951, she attended Bob Jones University in Greenville, SC, and taught in a Good News Bible Club that reached underserved communities with the Gospel. She returned to Colorado and attended Rockmont Bible College, where she met and fell in love with Jim. They were married for over 56 years until his death in 2012. Mary was an artist, specializing in oil paintings, with her favorites reproduced on Christmas cards, which she lovingly sent each year. She loved clouds and mountains and deer, her favorite subjects to paint. After suffering a stroke, she had been living with her daughter's family for the past three months.

Survivors included sister Emma Goodenough of Longmont; brothers Verlan (Barbara) Snodgrass of Cedarburg, Wisconsin; and Loren (Jackie) of Lompoc, California; children Greg Skidmore, Amy (Dan) Hoppes, Suzie O'Connor, Robin (Chris) Melkus, Scott (Christine) Skidmore, and Rick (Stacey) Skidmore; 16 grandchildren; and 6 great-grandchildren.

8 Jan 2019 – (obituary) (on-line)

In loving memory of Elva DeEtta “Dee” (Kennedy) Snodgrass. Our beloved and beautiful Dee became an Angel of God on January 8, 2019, at the age of 78. Dee was devoted to and lived for her family. She will always be a very much-loved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend to all. Dee was born in Springfield, [Baca Co.] Colorado, on June 17, 1940, to William C. “Clarence” and Elva Kennedy, where she grew up and graduated from Springfield High School in 1958.

Dee was joined in marriage to Raymond “Ray” Snodgrass on June 1, 1958, in Springfield. This union started an ongoing legacy with Dee and Ray having three daughters and one son, Raylene Josseland, Julie McCarthy, Linda Theesfeld, and Casey Snodgrass. The family moved from Springfield to Burlington [Kit Carson Co., Colorado] in 1963, then relocated to Flagler [Kit Carson Co., Colorado] in 1966, Cheyenne Wells [Cheyenne Co., Colorado] in 1969, Limon [Lincoln Co., Colorado] in 1971, Colorado Springs [El Paso Co., Colorado] in 1975, and then returned to Burlington in 1982 where they established a permanent residence. Dee and Ray’s legacy continues with five grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and a great-great-granddaughter.

Dee is survived by her beloved husband of 60 years, Raymond; daughters Raylene (Calvin), Julie (Hank), Linda, and son Casey (Nancy); all of her grandchildren; brother Richard “Toby” Kennedy (Joan) of Kersey, Colorado; and sister Lynn Hafen (Elwayne) of Aurora, Colorado; and many nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Elva Kennedy; brother William C. “Bill” Kennedy, Jr. (Verna) of Aurora, [Arapahoe or Adams Co.] Colorado, and sister Sandra Kay “Sandy” Thomas (John) of Thornton, [Adams or Weld Co.] Colorado.

Our precious Angel of God, Dee, will always be greatly loved, fondly remembered, and very much missed. The family is planning a celebration of Dee’s life to be held in June 2019. Memorial Contributions may be made and sent to Grace Manor Care Center, 465 5th Street, Burlington, Colorado 80807.

6 Mar 1970 - Greeley Daily Tribune (Greeley, Colorado) (Newspapers.com), Friday, 6 Mar 1970:

A truck driver was killed Thursday in a collision east of Ignacio in southwest Colorado, raising the state's traffic fatality toll to 101, compared with 87 on the same date a year ago.

The Colorado State Patrol identified the victim as Vernon R. Snodgrass, 45, of Ignacio. He died at the scene of a broken neck and head and internal injuries.

Officers said Snodgrass was attempting to make a left turn with his one-ton truck when a vehicle tried to pass him. The vehicles collided and the truck overturned.

Snodgrass, who was not wearing seat belts, was pinned beneath the wreckage. The driver of the car, Troy Junior Evans, 41, of Albuquerque, N.M., suffered facial cuts and a knee injury.

20 Aug 1932 – Logansport Pharos-Tribune (Logansport, Indiana) (Newspapers.com), Saturday, 20 Aug 1932:

Homer Burns Hawthorne, 40 years old, manager of the Legal Loan company and commander of Cass County Post No. 60, American Legion, in 1931, succumbed this morning at 11:45 o'clock at his home in 813 North Pearl street. He was widely known and liked throughout the city and this community. Hawthorn's health began to fail last February and while his condition, due to a heart ailment, was regarded as serious, he never was bedfast until the past few days when he became critically ill.

As commander of the American Legion in 1931, he made an admirable record, and the organization was active throughout the period of his leadership. Mr. Hawthorne was a soldier who saw action on the battlefields of Franc and fell, wounded, in the Argonne fighting.

He was born Oct. 3, 1891, in Clearfield, Ia. When he was a boy, the family moved to Fort Morgan, Colo., and there he was educated in the public common and high schools. He enlisted in the army when his government called for men and soon saw service in France.
After his honorable discharge from the army, he came to Logansport in 1919 and soon afterwards married Miss Bernice Clary. He was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad at that time. Eight years ago he affiliated with Legal Loan company and was made manager of the local branch two years later.

Surviving besides the widow are two children, Beth Ellen, 8 year old, and Mary Lee, 6 years old; his mother, Mrs. Emma Hawthorne, living in Iowa; four sisters, Mrs. Earl McLagan, Mrs. Noel Meekins, Mrs. Carl McKee, and Mrs. Jesse Snodgrass, all of Fort Morgan, [Morgan Co.], Colo.; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Samuel Spurrier of Mt. Ayr, Iowa; and Mrs. Walter Vawter, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mr. Hawthorne was a member of the Tipton lodge No. 33, F. & A. M., Elks lodge, Kiwanis club, and the Forty and Eight, besides a member of the Legion.

Chase and company are in charge of funeral arrangements, which will be announced later.

16 Aug 1927 – (obituary) (Findagrave)

The end of a long and useful life came to Mrs. Beulah A Snodgrass last Wednesday noon, at the Bates hospital, death following an emergency operation for a disease of many years. Beulah Anna Hockett was born in Iowa, August 8, 1860. The family moved to Kansas immediately following the Civil war, when the plains were filled with antelope and buffalo. In 1870 or '71, she came to Colorado with Mr. And Mrs. M. E. Graham, pioneer residents of Red Cliff, where in the latter '70s she married James Jackson Young. To this union three children were born, Emma Pearl, Georgia Bernice, and Royal A. Young. In 1896, with her family she moved to Denver, and later the same year moved to Golden, where for many years she cooked for the students of the Colorado School of Mines. In 1901 she became the wife of Amos B. Snodgrass, who survives. A year in Oregon or more, and later two years in Wyoming before settling on a homestead in Idaho. Advancing years brought them to their son in Ouray, where the last three years have been spent.

A true and devoted wife and mother, a friend to all, with an understanding heart. Her life filled with Christ life and Christ teachings, her friends were legion.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning, August 20, from the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

20 Mar 1967 – (unknown newspaper) (Lamar, Colorado), 20 Mar 1967:
George W. Snodgrass – 100 Years Young – "I like to sing."
Local Man is 100 on Monday, by David Stinnett.
One hundred years is indeed a long life span. George W. Snodgrass, resident of Valli-Vu Nursing Home, will have achieved that distinction Sunday when he celebrates his 100th birthday anniversary in the company of many descendants, relatives and a host of friends.
The event will be honored with an open house at the nursing home, Harding and 10th streets, from 2-4 p.m. Sunday.
In a Daily Record interview in anticipation of the occasion, the distinguished centenarian said, "I feel good. I'm a little hoarse, though for singing. I want to be able to do a good job of it Sunday," he observed.

Not idle talk, the elderly gentleman then responded to urging of other residents by singing a full four choruses of an old standard hymn, "At The Cross," in a clear penetrating voice, drawing a round of appreciative applause.

"He has been practicing every day this week," said Mrs. Burdette Bean, manager of the home, "and is really looking forward to the visit from the children." Mr. Snodgrass has six children living of a family of eight.

George W. Snodgrass was born March 20, 1867 in Morgantown, Ky., in Butler County. That was the year the U.S. bought Alaska from the Russians.

Later he moved to Ohio and then in 1916 to Oklahoma. There for many years he was a wheat farmer. He then got interested in horses and for a time bred and raised thoroughbred animals on a good scale.

He left Oklahoma in 1953 following the death of his wife, the former Louella Evans, who died in 1952.

He then came to Lamar where he lived for about six years and later in July 1965, moved to the Valli-Vu Nursing Home when relatives feared for him falling or being accidentally injured. However, Mr. Snodgrass appears to walk along with little difficulty, using only a walking cane.

Impeccably dressed in a blue pin-striped suit, his appearance is that of a distinguished Kentucky colonel.

Beside his love for singing, the man who's birthday runs now in three figures, is proud of his ability to recall instances of bygone years. "My memory is very good," he proudly stated.

Persons attending the open house to meet Canon City's only known centenarian were requested by home officials for the family, not to bring gifts.

G. W. Snodgrass. Family and friends gathered at Valli-Vu Nursing Home Sunday p.m. March 19, to help G. W. Snodgrass celebrate his 100th birthday. Although he has reached the century mark, Mr. Snodgrass is up and about, he is alert and interested in what goes on around about him. He still likes to sing hymns and sang two early Sunday p.m., "Bringing in the Sheaves," and "Shall We Gather at the River."

A native of Kentucky, he was born in Morgantown, Ky., 20 March 1867. He spent most of his life on the farm, raised wheat and thoroughbred horses. His hobbies were raising flowers and shrubs. He has been a devout Baptist and active in his church all of his life. He moved from Kentucky to Oklahoma in 1916. After the death of his wife, Luella Evans Snodgrass, in 1953, he retired from farming and came to Canon City. He lived here with a daughter until 1957 when he went to Lamar. In 1962, he came back here and lived with his daughter, Flora Snodgrass Embry, until 20 July 1965 when he moved to Valli-Vu.

He has 120 living descendants--6 children, 22 grandchildren, 54 great-grandchildren and 38 great-great-grandchildren, with two sets of twins in the fifth generation.

His children are Guy Snodgrass, Portland, Missouri; Roy Snodgrass, Terre Haute, Indiana; Ted Snodgrass, Meridian, Idaho; Cecil Snodgrass, Deming, New Mexico; Mrs. Flora Snodgrass Embry, Canon City, Colorado; Mrs. Marie Wheaton, Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Embry, Roy, and Ted and their wives as well as grand- and great-grandchildren were present for the birthday celebration.

The Methodist Episcopal Church was organized 11 Jul 1897, meeting in the East Lincoln Schoolhouse. Among early families represented was the Snodgrass family.

1982 – The History of Sedgewick County, Colorado (Fort Sedgewick Hist. Soc.--1982)
vol. 2, pages 7 & 8:

One day a large man drove in to apply for the school. His name was Snodgrass, and he lived near the river bank about a mile west of Ovid, which was not thought of then. He could not qualify as a music teacher, but seeing our mower and rake caused him to talk about hay. His place had several acres of good hay, and his nearest neighbor to the east also had a good hayfield and no machinery to get it harvested. Since our machinery had no hay to cut, the thought of school was given up and the conversation turned to hay. It ended up with a verbal contract that he and his neighbor would use the mower and rake and let us have two loads of hay each three days the machinery was used, so that was where we went for hay that year. It was a drive of about 13 miles, and with two teams and a wagon borrowed from Mr. McWilliams, we tried to bring two loads each time we went, but something can always happen, and it did on the first trip. When the first load was loaded it was ready to drive out on firm ground, as much of the hay ground was soft with alkali. In going through one wet place, one wheel went down in an alkali spot and turned the course of the wagon against a lump of dirt and the load was stuck. In trying to get a team ahead to help pull, the wagon tongue broke so we went home the first day with only one load. The next day Father spent trying to find a wagon tongue to use, but found none. After trying still more later, he bought some bolts and 2x4's and put the old tongue together and by pitching most of the load off, it was possible for two horses to pull the wagon out of the place where it was stuck. Then we made several trips getting two loads each time. There was hardly enough hay to make safe feeding through the winter, and after the hay was all hauled according to the contract, Mr. Snodgrass wanted a cow for his family, as his three children needed milk the same as others, and he had a stack of hay that he could spare, so Father sold him a cow and took a stack of hay as pay, and all parties concerned were satisfied, unless it may have been the horses that had to haul the hay. At that time the problem of the school was not settled for 68, but Mr. Snodgrass had a school to teach, in his own district, so he was situated better than he would have been if 68 had hired him.

12 Mar 1932 – Greeley Daily Tribune (Greeley, Colorado) (Newspapers.com), Saturday, 12 Mar 1932:

One month past her ninety-eighth birthday, Mrs. Matilda Armstrong died Saturday morning at the home of her daughters, Ida and Maude Armstrong, at 1533 Eleventh avenue. Mrs. Armstrong, one of Greeley's oldest citizens, had made her home with them for 23 years. The little old lady, keen minded and alert to within a few weeks of her death, had numerous friends here. She was for many years a member of the Methodist church.

Funeral service will be held at Sattley Funeral home Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Dr. W. D. Cole in charge. Two daughters, Maude Armstrong and Mrs. R. O. Carlock, will take the body to Douglas, Illinois, Monday afternoon, and burial will be in the Hermon cemetery [Knox Co., Illinois].

Mrs. Armstrong, Matilda Snodgrass before her marriage, was born in Jackson county, Ohio, Feb. 10, 1834. She went to Illinois with her parents in 1840, and they located near Knoxville. In 1854 she was married to John Armstrong, who died in 1905. To the Armstrongs were born nine children, seven of whom are living.

They are the Misses Ida and Maude Armstrong and Mrs. A. Travers of Greeley; one son, Riley Armstrong, of Wapello, Iowa; Mrs. Nellie Bond, Middlegrove, Illinois; Mrs. B. A. Hill, Douglas, Illinois; Mrs. R. O. Carlock of Buylis, Illinois; who has been helping care for her mother.

Mrs. Armstrong is survived also by one half-sister, Mrs. Emma Mundwiler of Arkansas City, Kan., seven grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

1986 – Homesteading the Dry Land: A History of Northeast Weld Co., Colorado (Wells-1986)

Nora Laughlin Dack and Grace Laughlin Snodgrass, sisters who grew up on their father's homestead in Norton Co., Kansas, came to Stoneham in covered wagons in the spring of 1916. Nora was accompanied by her husband Roy Dack and two daughters, Mildred age 5 and Lauretta age 2. They bought relinquishments on the Northeast quarter of section 2, township 8, range 56, and lots 7 and 8 Northwest quarter. They lived in the wagon's over-jets until a two-room frame house was built. Each night before going to bed, Nora shook out all the bedding and swept the area of their temporary home to make sure no rattlesnakes were settling in with them. Three sons were born on the homestead: Jim in 1917, Virgil in 1920, and Jack in 1926.

Grace and her husband, Clint Snodgrass, their children, Leonard age 12, Viola age 3, and Dora age 2, took a homestead along the Rocky Ridge seven miles southeast of the Dacks. They built a small sod house near a natural spring. Both families raised and canned their vegetable and meat, which they stored in the cellar. The women churned butter and baked bread. Cow chips were the main source of fuel for baking and heating.

Each July Fourth there was a community picnic with lots of fried chicken, roasting ears, and all the homemade ice cream you could eat. The men engaged in horse-shoe games. In the summer, neighbors would gather on Saturday night at a home that had a piano. They rolled up the rug, opened the windows, and to the spirited tunes from the piano, a fiddle and banjo or mandolin, they danced the three-quarter waltz, the polka, and the square-dance. Outside the children danced too. Most of them learned the square-dance calls and joined the adults at an early age.

In 1922, the Snodgrass family returned to Kansas. In the fall of 1928, Roy Dack rented out the homestead and moved the family to Denver. In the winter of 1929, he deserted the family. Jim Dack had a live-in job working for the Wiesel brothers on their ranch. Mildred had married Jake Dawson of Stoneham in the fall of 1929. Nora took [the other three children,] Laretta, Jack, and Virgil to Kansas to live with her father in the spring of 1929. A Sterling lawyer, engaged by two of Nora's brothers, established that half of the homestead was legally hers, because she had been a partner in improving on it. He also convinced Roy Dack to deed his half to the children with a life trust in Nora, so that she could support the family. In 1932 Nora, Jack, and Virgil returned to the homestead.

At age 12, Virgil helped his mother farm during the early years of the Great Depression. They raised wheat and other grains. In 1935 Laretta moved to Los Angeles seeking work. A year later Nora and the three boys joined her in California. In 1939 Jim died in an accident in Colorado Springs. After serving in the Army in World War II, Virgil married Edith Clark of Stoneham, where they built their house. Virgil continued to farm the homestead, but sold the original two-room house. It was moved to Sterling, where it still stands on Douglas Street.

Following Nora's death in 1965, Virgil bought their shares from his sisters and brothers. He continued to farm the homestead until he sold it to Gary Dollerschell of Stoneham in 1929.

At the time of her death, Nora lived in Ft. Lupton, CO. She had endured all the hardships of the early pioneer women, carried the responsibility of caring for her family alone, and suffered the anxiety of having two sons, Virgil and Jack, at war. Her selfless love and unwavering faith in God continues to be an inspiration and guiding light to her children.

9 Sep 2015 – Great Falls Tribune (Great Falls, Montana) (Findagrave), 9 Sep 2015:

Dillon—Kay Snodgrass Harrison was called home to the Lord on September 2nd, 2015, after a battle with a long illness. Kay has now found peace in her final home. Kay was born on April 3, 1944, in Rupert, Idaho, but would soon call Dillon, Montana home. Her parents, Frances and Charles Snodgrass, spent much of their time when Kay was young returning animals that had "followed" her home or encouraging her not to miss school on sunny days to ride her horse. As one of the first natural horsewomen, she was passionate about the horses and would look for any opportunity to work them. She attended school in Dillon from her elementary years to her time at Beaverhead County High School. While spending summers with her Aunt Helen in Idaho, she came to love God and joined the Catholic Church. Even at a young age her friendship with God would drive her to walk to church, rain or shine, every Sunday and 40 days of Lent. During this time, she was extremely active in Girls Athletic Association, Beaverettes, Rodeo Club, and Pep Club. Her high school years saw her blossom in her God given talents as an artist, hair stylist, and horsewoman. Even with her busy schedule, she would still find time to go dancing with her best friend, Bonnie (Smith) Ferris. She became Miss Dillon Jaycee 1962. She was first of what became three generations to represent the Dillon Rodeo. Upon graduating from high school in 1962, Kay attended college at Idaho State in Cosmetology. She loved creating high fashion hairstyles and at the time received the highest score on the state board styling test.

It was around this time that she fell in love with her husband of more than 50 years, Wayne Harrison. Wayne and Kay would raise two girls. During these years Kay loved mentoring her children in 4-H projects, art, dog training, and rodeo. Kay was blessed with five grandchildren. In addition, she has one great-grandchild.

[abstract] Seven Persons Are Hurt In Smashup On Belt Highway -- Great Falls --

Lloyd Snodgrass [of Tracy, Cascade Co., Montana], driver of the vehicle that was parked on the highway, was returning from a dance at Fields by way of Great Falls [Cascade Co., Montana]. He was accompanied by his brother [Richard Snodgrass] and sister [Ruby Snodgrass] and Lee Alred. According to them, Lloyd complained of being sleepy, about six miles from this city, and stopped the car so that his brother might change positions with him.

Just as Richard Snodgrass was stepping out of the car, he saw the Holman machine approaching and decided to wait until it passed. Instead, the latter smashed into the rear of the Snodgrass car, drove it along the road about 30 feet and into a bank, completely demolishing it. Holman's car careened down the road for 50 feet or more and overturned. It was also considerable damaged.

6 Dec 2019 – (obituary) (Findagrave)

Robert (Bob) Zeak Snodgrass, 90, passed away peacefully December 6, 2019. A Memorial Service will be held Wednesday, December 11th at 1:00 p.m. in the Rose Room Chapel at Croxford Funeral Home. Military Honors will be provided at the end of the service by the Malmstrom Air Force Color Guard and by the local VFW Post.

Bob was born April 4, 1929, in Great Falls, Montana, to Zeak and Lily Snodgrass, the youngest of seven children. Bob spent his early years in Sand Coulee, Montana. Bob's family moved from Sand Coulee to Great Falls on December 7, 1941. He graduated from Great Falls High School in 1947. Bob served in the Air National Guard where he loved working on airplanes, especially the P-51 Mustang. While in the service, Bob married RoseMary Ritenour October 20, 1951.

Bob and RoseMary returned to the family farm in Pendroy, Montana, after his military service. Bob worked hard to be one of the best farmers in the area. While on the farm, four children were added to the family.

Bob was active in the community and was always there to lend a helping hand. He served on the Pendroy School Board, the Pendroy Volunteer Fire Department, and was active in the Pendroy Bench Riders Saddle Club. Bob enjoyed hunting, fishing, Cowboy Polo, guns, new cars, one 1934 Ford Truck, and spending time with his family.

In 2011 Bob retired, when he and RoseMary moved to Great Falls, Montana. Bob reconnected with friends from Great Falls High, and his extended Snodgrass family. Best of all, Bob had time to enjoy his great grandkids.

Bob is survived by his wife of 68 years, RoseMary; his four children and spouses, Robert (Joann) Snodgrass of Pendroy; Marlene Snodgrass of Las Vegas; Marie Snodgrass of Chaska, Minnesota; and Stacey (Steve) Craig of Colstrip, Montana. Bob leaves eight grandchildren, Janelle (Jesse) Patton, Will Snodgrass, Amber (Josh) Van Setten, Trevor and Melanie Vossberg, Sydney, James, and Ryan Craig; five great-grandchildren, Braden and Madison Patton, Natalie, Molly and Logan Van Setten. We will all miss dad and Poppa.

Bob has left his Patriarch duties to his nephew, Jerry Snodgrass. The family wants to take this time to say a Great Big Thank You to Jerry and Terry Snodgrass for being so kind and helpful to Bob and Rosemary.

23 Oct 2011 – (obituary) (Findagrave)

Alice LaRiviere Snodgrass Huller passed away on October 23, 2011. Alice was born in Miles City, Montana on October 2, 1932, to Elmer and Nora (Wetherelt) LaRiviere. Alice grew up on the family ranch on Third Creek south of Broadus and for the first two years attended a country school, living with the teacher during the week. In 1940, the family moved to Broadus where Alice attended the Broadus School. She graduated from Broadus High School in 1950. The Korean War left a shortage of teachers, so, after only 3 months of teacher's training, Alice started her 40-year teaching career in a one-room school in North Dakota. In 1954 Alice took a teaching position in Ashland, Montana. This is where she met and married Albert Snodgrass. Albert and Alice raised their daughter Audrey and son Byron on their ranch at Ashland. Albert died in 1984.

In 1957 Alice went to work at St. Labre Indian School. In the many years she worked at St. Labre she held a variety of positions, including clerk, teacher, and principal. It has been said that she could teach a fence post to read. Alice retired in 1988 but continued to work as a substitute teacher for a few years after that.

In 1987 Alice married family friend, Jay Frank Huller. Since their five kids had gone to school together and were already good friends, it was an easy merger into one family. Alice and Frank made their home on a ranch near Bridger.

Alice was very active and traveled all over the country, including driving the Alcan Highway to Alaska. Alice and Frank traveled to Europe and Australia with their sisters. Alice lost some of her independence in 1997 when she developed macular degeneration. But, thanks to Frank, her sisters, and brothers-in-law, she was still able to do some traveling. Even after she couldn't see well, Alice crocheted afghans for friends and family and made many lap robes that she donated to nursing homes.

Alice is survived by husband, Frank; daughter, Audrey Snodgrass and her son, Shane Wheeler; son, Byron Snodgrass; stepdaughter, Cheryl (Mark) Bither and their kids, Patrick, Corey and Mathew; stepson, Greg (Laura) Huller and their kids, Jay, Michael, Mary, Brian and Justin; and stepson, Mark (Teresa) Huller and their daughters, Kim & Tina. Alice also leaves her great-grandkids, Kaylyn, Madison, Logan, Carisma, and John; sister, Gladys (Barney) Considine, their sons, Shawn and Wayne; and sister, Irene (Jim) Ludwigson, and her daughters, Catherine and Sandra. She is also survived by her Snodgrass, Wetherelt, and Huller families, and her many friends that she has made throughout her lifetime.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Neal Sorenson and the staff on the 3rd floor at St. Vincent's Hospital for their kindness and compassion.

Audrey, Byron, and Shane wish to make a special thanks to Mark, Teresa, and Kim. They were with Mom and Frank when the rest of us couldn't be and handled more than their share. Thank God for people like them.

The funeral will take place in Ashland at the St. Labre Church at 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 29, interment at the Ashland cemetery, followed by lunch at the St. Labre Cafeteria. A Memorial will be held in Bridger on Saturday, November 5th at 1 p.m. at the Civic Center on Main Street. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Bridger Public Library or Montana Talking Book Library.

3 Jun 2017 – (obituary) (Findagrave)

Thaida Batey of Forsyth passed from this world to the next on Monday, July 3, 2017, at the age of 83. She was surrounded by her entire family. Thaida was born July 14, 1933, in Ashland, Montana, to Les and Mary Beatty Snodgrass. She spent her youth in Ashland, later graduating high school from Rosebud High in 1951. She married her husband, Ray Batey on February 2, 1952.

Ray and Thaida lived on the Rosebud Creek and operated the Batey Ranch for 46 years. Thaida was often found operating haying equipment and preparing meals for hay and thrashing crews. Thaida was well known for her delicious meals and baked goods. She enjoyed her home and loved to entertain. In 2000, the ranch sold and Ray and Thaida moved into Forsyth.

Thaida's greatest joy came from her six grandchildren. Every summer the grandchildren would attend "Grandma Camp." Over the years, many nieces and nephews also spent time at the "Grandma Camp." One of her favorite sayings was, "Grandchildren are your gift from God for not killing your own."

She was a founding member of the Rosebud / Treasure Cowbells, a member of the Federated Church, Forsyth Country Club, and Eastern Star. Her hobbies included golf, bowling, and playing cards with friends.

~19 Jan 1911 – Central City Republican-Nonpareil (Central City, Nebraska) (Newspapers.com),
19 Jan 1911:

J. W. Snodgrass, formerly a resident of this place, but for many years past a railroad man in Colorado [should be New Mexico], met with a tragic death at his home in Raton, Colo. [= New Mexico], Friday, Jan. 6, drinking carbolic acid by mistake instead of cough medicine. The following from the Raton paper tells of the occurrence:

On Friday morning last, Raton was profoundly shocked by the announcement of the sudden death of Mr. J. W. Snodgrass through the drinking of carbolic acid in the dim light of the early morning under the belief that it was a cough medicine. Mr. Snodgrass was a man well known from long residence in our city, and highly regarded by everyone, and the news of his tragic end brought grief both sincere and deep to a host of loyal friends.

Mr. Snodgrass arose soon after five o'clock Friday morning, and suffering somewhat from the effects of a cold, took what he presumed to be a dose of medicine to relieve his condition. The contents of the bottle proved to be carbolic acid, and the unfortunate man discovered his error too late. Notwithstanding the utmost efforts were made to counteract the deadly poison by Dr. Hart, who was quickly called, Mr. Snodgrass expired at 7:20 o'clock. So quickly had it all transpired that his family were first stunned by the shock and then prostrated by poignant grief. The news spread rapidly over the city, and the sorrow of the family was quickly shared by the victim's many friends.

The funeral of Mr. Snodgrass was held from the family residence, 520 Moulton avenue, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. E. S. Paddock of the Baptist church officiating, assisted by Rev. C. J. Dickey of the Methodist church. The attendance, which has perhaps never been exceeded by any funeral in Raton, attested the universal regard in which Mr. Snodgrass was held. The floral offerings were beautiful and very profuse, heaping the casket with exquisite bloom. Notable among these were the remembrances of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, of which the deceased was a member; the ladies of the Brotherhood; the yardmen of Engine Crew No. 2011; the Fraternal Brotherhood, of which Mr. Snodgrass was a member; the B. A. Club; the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society; and the employees of the Colorado Telephone Co. Many of the flowers sent in by individual friends were also of much beauty.

Besides the stricken widow, Mr. Snodgrass leaves surviving him four children, Miss Effie, Bertha, Leonard, and Melvin. At the old home in Central City, Nebr., are his sorrowing parents, a brother, J. H. Snodgrass, and two sisters, Miss Susie Snodgrass and Mrs. Sadie Huber. There are also a brother, Edward, at Palmer, Nebr.; another brother, Joseph, at Fullerton, Nebr.; and a sister, Mrs. A. E. Stoughton, at Los Angeles, Cal. Of these only J. H. Snodgrass, of Central City, Nebr., was able to attend the funeral. He was accompanied here by a nephew, Lester Snodgrass of the same place.

James W. Snodgrass was born in Macon, Missouri, April 25, 1861, removing with his parents to Grundy County, near Trenton, Mo., at the age of eleven. It was there he was wedded to Miss Jane E. Chipps, May 10, 1883, with whom he lived happily to the time of his death. The young couple went to Central City, Nebr., soon after their marriage, where they lived for eight years, afterward going to Trinidad, Colo, and thence after three years coming to Raton, reaching this city Sept. 13, 1894. During the sixteen years of his residence in Raton, Mr. Snodgrass has been employed in the services of the Santa Fe company as hostler, round-house foreman, and switch engineer, in the later occupation for the last seven years. The business grew from the shoe repair shop into the large retail sales firm it is now with all types of western wear featured. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass in the business during the past several years have been a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harvey Snodgrass.

6 Nov 1931 – Billings Gazette (Billings, Yellowstone Co., Montana) (Ancestry), 6 Nov 1931:
Lottery Conspiracy Charge Is Admitted --

Santa Fe, [Santa Fe Co.], N.M.--Two pleas of guilty, one of nolo contendere, and one of not guilty were entered in federal court Thursday by defendants in the Saratoga sweepstakes lottery case.

Joe Dunne of El Paso, secretary of the Sweepstakes association which handled the lottery, entered the plea of nolo contendere through his attorney, Judge E. R. Wright of Santa Fe. Such a plea admits the facts represented in the indictment but leaves the case in the hands of the court, denying any moral turpitude.

Charles Snodgrass, of Dillon, Montana, and E. N. Howard of Kansas City, pleaded guilty to the lottery conspiracy charges against them, and Charles H. Mayer of New York City pleaded not guilty.

30 Mar 2006 - (obituary) (Findagrave)

Billy C. "Bronco Billy" Snodgrass, age 75, a lifelong resident of Belen, passed away on Thursday, March 30. Billy was born in Belen to Floyd and Lottie Mae Snodgrass on Nov. 30, 1930. He attended the Belen Public Schools, graduating from Belen High School with the Class of 1948. Billy loved horses and would help his father on his farm with the horses and animals. He would stay overnight on the ditch bank with his horse to make sure no one stole the water needed for the crops.

Billy worked in the summers on ranches and farms, taming the broncos. This is how he acquired the name "Bronco Billy." Billy was a calf roper and a bronc rider, competing in the New Mexico State Fair, throughout the state and in other states, winning prizes and money.

Billy proudly served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. After the Army, he moved to Alaska and rode broncos in competition and worked for the railroad.

When Billy retired, he moved back to New Mexico and enjoyed working as a tutor for the Valencia County Grandparents Program.

Billy was preceded in death by his parents, Floyd and Lottie Mae Snodgrass; a sister, Esa-Mae Hurst; and a brother, Lee Eckie Snodgrass. He is survived by the love of his life, Trinity Vance Bowles; her son, Vance R. Futrell; Trinity's sister, Betty Jo Vance; and many loving friends. His family wrote that Bronco Billy, the cowboy, will be truly missed by all who knew him.

A viewing was held Friday, March 31 at held at Romero Funeral Home Chapel with a rosary recited. Billy was laid to rest in his family plot in Terrace Grove Cemetery, next to his sister, Essie Mae Hurst. Dicky Romero officiated at the graveside service and also conducted military honors, presenting the flag to Trinity. A reception Friday was held at Rutilio's Restaurant, furnished by Rudy Jaramillo. Romero Funeral Home, 609 N. Main St., Belen.

3 Aug 1927 -- Billings Gazette (Billings, Yellowstone Co., Montana) (Ancestry), 3 Aug 1927:
Slayer of Deputy Sheriff Eludes Law Net Spread Soon After Shooting on Highway.

Cheyenne [Laramie Co., Wyoming] -- Search for the slayer of Deputy Sheriff Arthur Osborne, who was shot down on the highway two miles west of Pine Bluff late Monday, was broadened in scope Tuesday as Sheriff George J. Carroll asked the aid of officials in adjoining states.

The jury summoned by Coroner J. B. Finkbiner in Pine Bluff Tuesday said Osborne was shot by a gun in the hands of an unknown man, presumable R. D. Snodgrass, who cashed $30 in stolen travelers checks in Cheyenne and whom Osborn was waiting to arrest.

An autopsy performed by Doctors J. H. Conway and M. L. Morris showed that Osborne had been shot once in the right arm from behind, the bullet ranging into the body, and the second was fired into the back. A farmer working in a field said he heard three shots fired. Meager evidence obtained indicated that Osborne, who was unarmed, was riding on the running board of the car when he was shot, Finkbiner said.

The Nebraska number of the slayer's car given by Louis A. Hellerstein, Denver Attorney, who said he saw Osborne fall, proved to be erroneous, and Sheriff Carroll is investigating on the first information that it was an Oklahoma license plate on the Snodgrass car. No further trace of the killer has been found.

Billings Gazette (Billings, Yellowstone Co., Montana) (Ancestry), 5 Aug 1927:

Osborne Slayer Stays At Large --

A man whose name is believed to be R. D. Snodgrass, and a large woman, are said to have escaped from the scene of the shooting in a large sedan and headed towards Colorado.

The posses [were] from Weld, Logan, and Morgan counties, Colorado, and one from Laramie county, Wyoming, thoroughly scouted the country near Pawnee buttes, where it was reported an automobile similar to the one sought had been seen, but no trace of the car or occupants was found.

Billings Gazette (Billings, Yellowstone Co., Montana) (Ancestry), 10 Aug 1927:

$1,000 Reward Is Offered For Osborne Slayer --

Osborne was found lying beside the road near Pine Bluff after he attempted to arrest a man giving his name as R. D. Snodgrass, who had cashed stolen travelers checks in Cheyenne.

Deputy Sheriff Romsa denied Tuesday that Elmer Inman, Kansas and Oklahoma bandit, had been identified as Osborne's slayer.

Billings Gazette (Billings, Yellowstone Co., Montana) (Ancestry), 17 Sep 1927:

Missouri Holds Woman Though Wyoming Slayer --

Cheyenne, Wyo.--"Mrs. Ruth Parker," who was arrested at Neosho, Mo., Friday is believed to be the woman who was in an automobile from which Deputy Sheriff Arthur Osborne was shot and killed near Pine Bluffs, 42 miles east of here, August 1. She is known to authorities here as "Mrs. J. H. Hamilton" and is known to have been with Elmer Inman, alleged Kansas robber who is believed to have been the man in the death car.

Osborn was slain when he went out on the highway to intercept "R. D. Snodgrass," wanted here on a charge of cashing stolen traveler's checks.

"Snodgrass" is believed to be an alias used by Inman.

Wilkerson Collection MSS. No. 551A:

John Snodgrass Stockholder and foreman of the bay state cattle company Mr. Snodgrass is a native of Virginia and was born in 1842. When 19 years of age he went to fort Laramie Wyoming starting from Atchison Kansas as a freighter. After his trip to Ft. Laramie he returned to Leavenworth Kansas and in the summer of 1860 went to Salt Lake Utah with freight & returned to Nebraska & wintered his stock & in the Spring returned to Denver wintered & in the Spring of 1863 made two trips with freight from Omaha & Atchinson Kansas to Ft Laramie. In the Summer of 1864 he went to Montana with a mule in freighting & returned to Denver and wintered. In the Spring of 1865 he went to Omaha working that Summer between Denver & Omaha. In 1866 spent most of the time from Ft. Kearny making one trip in the fall to Denver. In 1867 he went to fort Reno, Ft. Phil Kearny and Ft. C. F. Smith after which he returned to Julesburg Nebraska. In 1867 Mr. Snodgrass made a short visit to his native state & returned to Cheyenne in the Spring of 1868 where he took charge of an ox team & was engaged in hauling RR ties for Davis, Sprague & co on the little Laramie River at which he continued until the Spring of 1870 after which he was logging on the Laramie River until March 1876. He then went to horn creek & took charge of Edward Creighton's cattle & remained with Mr. Creighton until 1883 when Mr. Creighton sold out to the bay State Land & Cattle Co. In 1875 Mr. Snodgrass was married to Miss Mary Davison of Virginia by whom he has 3 children living. Ollie Edward and Ina. Johnie deceased.

Comments by James Lee Snodgrass, a descendant of this John Snodgrass:

This is an exact copy of the document and includes the 1842 birth date which is on some Bible records. His gravestone has 1841. His marriage was to Mary Jane Davidson, and was on 24 Dec 1874. The Wilkerson manuscript was apparently written after the 1883 sale of the ranch, but before the birth of James Goolman Snodgrass 28 May 1885. The 1860 date for the Utah trip does not match an 1842 birth date and his arrival in Fort Laramie at age 19. Most caravans of settlers tried to leave the Missouri area as near to May 1 as possible, as they waited for the spring grasses to green up for the oxen and other stock. These caravans would be in Wyoming by mid or late June, but a commercial carrier would probably travel faster than this. Fort Laramie was established by 1849. Cheyenne was formed in 1867. The Bozeman Trail was first established in 1863 as an attractive shortcut to the Montana gold camps, but it was soon known as the "Bloody Bozeman" because of the Sioux raids. Forts like Reno, Phil Kearney, and C. F. Smith were built to protect this route. By 1868, after events like the 1866 F__ Massacre, the forts were <rest is missing>.

Document in the Wyoming State Archives (author's name unknown):

The Creighton Ranch, U (?) established in 1872 by John A. Creighton & Brother, Bankers, of Omaha, Nebraska, location 53 miles northeast of Cheyenne on Horse Creek and thirty miles farther east on ___ Creek, Nebraska, really is two ranches. The first installment of cattle consisted of 2,000 cows driven up the trail from Capt. King's ranch in southwest Texas. King was by far the largest land and cattle owner in all Texas and furnished the northwest markets with hundreds of thousands of cattle throughout sixteen years of trail driving activities.

The second year after the establishment of the ranch or ranches, Indians made a raid. They killed the foreman, whose name I have forgotten, on the Horse Creek ranch, and proceeded to the lower ranch where John A. McShane, a nephew of the Creightons, and a boy of fifteen or sixteen years were the only occupants. The Indians killed the boy and compelled McShane to cook a repast for them after which they looted the ranch house of everything, stripped McShane of his clothing, gave him an unmerciful beating and departed with their booty. When the Indians made their appearance, the boy ran. McShane, although he had three carbines with ammunition, but realizing he had no show with a hundred or more Indians, came forward with his "hands up". The Indians recognized the token of surrender and immediately put him to cooking. McShane in relating to me, four years after, said they kept him busy for two hours cooking while the Indians sat around waiting and occasionally pricked him with the point of their lances to speed him up. So when he had cooked about all of the provisions he had on hand, they stripped him of his clothing, gave him a whipping and left with the two horses he had in the stable, packed with loot upon their way to the northwest. McShane said he was so exhausted from his strenuous two hours of cooking and the whipping the Indians had given him that he lay on the bare floor of the ranch house without moving for several hours. When sufficiently rested he arose though terribly sore and began looking around. He did not know what had become of the boy companion but supposed he had escaped to the settlement on the South Platte. Night coming on he struck out a-foot to the upper ranch, traveling all night; naked and sore, he reached the upper ranch there to learn that two days previously the Indians had surrounded the ranch and killed the foreman who happened to be a mile or so away from the ranch house by himself but the Indians, knowing that the men in the ranch house were well armed, did not care to risk a fight, so they took several horses from the ranch and went on down to the second ranch which they captured the next day as already related.

The Creighton Brothers who established the ranch in 1872 were identified with the early history of Omaha. They had three nephews, John A. McShane, Thomas B. McShane and John D. Creighton and were employed in various capacities with the Creighton Brothers' large interests in Omaha. It has been fifty-six years since I bid them all good-bye in Creighton's office in Omaha, Nebraska, having been in their employ three and one-half years on their ranch in Wyoming Territory. I had severed my service of my own volition and was on my way back to Texas and stopped off in Omaha to bid them a last good-bye.

Several years after returning to Texas I learned from newspapers that John A. McShane, the one who furnished me with the information relative to the Creighton's Ranch, was elected as a member of the United States Congress. I presume they are all dead but surely they have descendants in Omaha.

Now, as to John S. Snodgrass who succeeded the first manager in 1874 and continued in that position till 1884 when Creighton's ranch with several other pioneer ranches was sold to a New England syndicate, who incorporated under the name of The Bay State Cattle Company; John Snodgrass then went to Omaha and bought a farm and followed the occupation of farmer and stock-raiser a few years. He then sold out and returned to Virginia of which state he was a native but had left there when sixteen years old and the larger part of his adult life was spent in the northwest Territories, principally in Wyoming. He was a reticent man and rarely spoke of his past experiences, but he related to me on one occasion his past young life which was indeed colorful. He said he had joined Quantrello Gressillas when not quite seventeen and related to me some of the spectacular activities of Quantrello; especially do I remember his account of the raid and burning of Lawrenceville, Kansas, he of course was intimate with the Younger and the James boys, being the same age of Jesse James, Quantrello addressed them as "kids." At the conclusion of the war between the states he went, putting it in his own words, into the heart of the Rocky Mountains where the Union Pacific Railway was being built through Wyoming. One, Slade, a notorious character in the early history of Wyoming, was given a contract to furnish ties for the construction of the road. Slade employed Snodgrass, who was then a very young man, to manage his tie-cutters. Slade, at that time, had killed two or three men, one of whom was Jules, the founder of Julesburg, so Slade was regarded as a dangerous, disagreeable man, yet Snodgrass said in his two year's service under Slade as his manager, there was perfect peace and harmony. I had pointed out to me on the North Platte the site of Slade's original habitat where he deliberately shot Jules to death after keeping him a prisoner several days. Slade was, in later years, hung by Vigilantes, I believe, in Idaho or Montana.

Snodgrass died in Virginia twenty-five or thirty years ago. His wife (Mollie) died about ten years ago. His oldest child Ollie, was born in Cheyenne, sixty-two years ago; she is a widow with two sons and her address is: Mrs. Ollie Free, Osgood, Indiana. His next oldest child, Johnnie, born in Cheyenne sixty years ago was living near Omaha a few years ago. Two or three children were born after I left Wyoming and I do not know their present addresses.

I am a poor hand at writing history, dates of important events and advances of commercial, social, and political purposes do not register in memory as clearly as the personal characteristics of the men engaged in activities that made history; for instance, I remember DeWitt Clinton Tracy, a small ranch owner in Wyoming. He was a dyspeptic who always took with him on "round-up" a supply of crackers and canned sardines and would not eat the palatable and nutritious food of the cow camp, claiming that it interfered with his digestion. He was irascible and high-tempered, as dyspeptics usually are.

W.P.A. File No. 210, Wyoming State Archives, author unknown:

About once a year I correspond with John Snodgrass's (John Snodgrass was for years the foreman of the Creighton Ranch) oldest child, Mrs. Ollie Free, Osgood, Indiana. She was too young when the family left Wyoming to remember anything historical, but she might have some documents left to her by her father and mother possession some historical value. A year ago she wrote me she was keeping her father's six shooter and lariat. (La-Riata Spanish name for a rope of plaited cowhide). I wrote to her to preserve that rope by oiling it occasionally and that I had watched "Viego" (Spanish for old) make it. Because of his extreme age we called him "Viego". He was at least two weeks making that lariat. After dressing the cowhide and cutting it into strands he would put it in a sack and take it with him on the prairie where he watched the horses and while the horses were grazing "Viego" would work on the rope. After finishing it he presented it to El-Capitan, Senor Don Juan, and I suppose Snodgrass kept the rope long after he had quit ranching and had no further use for it only in grateful memory of "Viego". And when his daughter wrote she had the rope, it thrilled me through and through in contemplation. I realized that Viego the maker had long since turned to dust for as time indicates an old, old man, and the saddles, spurs, chaps, and cowboy accouterments of the old Creighton ranch have vanished with perishable things of the past. E. A. Boots of Thermopolis, Wyoming, now in his 83rd year and myself, now in my 82nd year, are the only two living beings who know "Viego" and the making of that rope, the only tangible material equipment of cowboys of the old Creighton ranch. That rope still visible to wondering eyes of man.

I suppose Wyoming has a museum of relics and tangible mementoes of its early history. If so I would suggest that you importune Mrs. Free to contribute that rope to Wyoming museum. Ollie was four years old when I came to the Creighton ranch. Snodgrass kept his family on the ranch three or four months during spring and summer. The balance of the time they resided in Cheyenne. I frequently took Ollie's beautiful blue-eyed, golden-locked child, on my saddle in front of me and galloped about the ranch. She was seven when I left there. On reaching Texas, I married, and named my first child, which happened to be a girl, Ollie, now fifty-four years old, which shows my esteem for John Snodgrass and his most estimable wife Mollie.

The mystery of why the historic old Goose Egg stone ranch house was built on a high open flat overlooking the North Platte River south of Casper was cleared up by the late George H. Snodgrass, area rancher.

Mr. Snodgrass, who died in 1972 at the age of 85, recalled that the Searight Brothers, who founded the ranch in 1879, originally planned their headquarters further upstream along the river, where there was ample water and the shade of tall cottonwood trees.

"They discovered a party of Indians had sneaked down a gulch nearby and decided to build a big stone house like a fortress on open ground to prevent any sneak attacks," Snodgrass said in a 1958 interview.

The wisdom of this move was demonstrated several times in the next few years when settlers from miles around gathered at the old Goose Egg stone house for protection from Indian attacks (which never materialized). This was only a few years after the Custer Massacre on the Little Big Horn, and new settlers were still alarmed over Indian raids.

Snodgrass himself selected a site close to the original Goose Egg homesite along the river as headquarters for his new ranch, appropriately named Goose Egg Ranch Co. It was operated in 1988 by his son, William. Hay fields are irrigated under the Kendrick Project. Earlier Snodgrass had homesteaded ranch holdings in the Antelope springs area northwest of the Salt Creek oilfields, in a rugged canyon area popular with deer hunters.

His second ranch along the river was picked for its dependable water supply assured by upstream dams which regulated the flow through the year, as well as irrigated fields to produce hay and carry his cattle through the winter months.

For much the same reasons the Searight Brothers picked this stretch of the Platte for water, shelter, and grass. They had trailed cattle from Texas and located on the Chugwater, where they sold their holdings to the Swan Land & Cattle Co. in 1878. They contracted for 14,000 head of cattle to be trailed from Oregon and threw up a temporary log bunkhouse and cook house roofed with poles and covered with a layer of sagebrush and dirt as temporary quarters. This was near the mouth of Poison Spider Creek in the vicinity of the first cabin in Wyoming built by Robert Stuart and the Astorians in 1812. The exact location has been disputed for years.

Gilbert Seabright was wondering what to use for a brand when one of his cowboys found a nest of wild geese eggs on an island in the river and brought them to "Old Over Slope," the cook--so named because his ears had been frozen off during earlier years on the winter range, giving him the appearance of having been earmarked with an overslope. It was a common range term of that forgotten era. In any event, the goose eggs gave Searight the idea for the brand. It was easy to heat the iron and form an oval loop, and the brand was easy to apply.

It became one of the most famous brands in Wyoming, giving rise to place names like nearby Goose Egg Mountain and years later, to the Goose Egg Inn, and the nearby Goose Egg Spring, largest fresh water spring in Wyoming and today the site of a state fish hatchery. The name was immortalized in Owen Wister's novel, "The Virginian," which perpetuated the folklore that the cowboys changed babies around during a dance at the Goose Egg ranch house. It was only after the parents returned home in the early morning hours that they discovered the babies had been switched. Fact or fiction, the story survives.

Snodgrass first visited the old stone ranch house in 1914, when the Carey Brothers were still operating it. The range was becoming crowded, with all the homesteaders taking up 640-acre tracts under a new law. Many discovered they could not survive without irrigation, and sold their homesteads to neighboring ranchers, or leased them.

Many early day ranchers got their start working for the Goose Egg. Martin Gothberg rode for the outfit as a green hand and later homesteaded the west end of Casper Mountain. William Clark lived there with his large family and later ran stage coaches from Casper to Lander, while ranching in the Pine Mountain area near Natrona.

The crumbling ranch house was becoming a hazard for souvenir hunters and vandals in the 1930s and was razed by later owners, the Jim Speas family. The Natrona County Pioneer Association tried to raise funds to restore the ranch house as a tourist attraction, but without success. It would have been popular today as part of a Casper loop tour.

As for the Searights, they "lucked out" by selling the ranch and 20,000 head of cattle to the Careys in the fall of 1885, a year ahead of the worst winter of the century, 1886-87, which wiped out most of the big cattle outfits in Wyoming. One of the factors which persuaded old Searight to sell was the increasing depredation of rustlers on the ranges of central Wyoming. Many of his "mavericks" or unbranded cattle were roped by the nesters.

A memorial open house is planned at the Yellowstone Garage, 355 West Yellowstone, in Casper from 11 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Saturday, September 8, 2018, in honor of Charles "Merle" Bittle, 89 who passed away Aug. 7, 2018, at Wyoming Medical Center.

He was born in his home in Loma, Colorado, on June 17, 1929. He was the son of Charles "Boyd" Bittle and Beatrice Watkins Bittle. Merle married Evelyn Louise Snodgrass on June 10, 1951. Merle's passion growing up was farming; however, he and Evelyn moved to Casper in 1962 where they raised their two children when he accepted a position at Pefrotomics Uranium Co. After retiring from the uranium industry, he worked at the Natrona County Parks Department in maintenance at Alcova Lake, and later retired to enjoy time at his lake home.

Merle was a friend to everyone he met. He was always the life of the party and had an infectious laugh and personality! He enjoyed camping, fishing, boating, and spending quality time with family at his summer home "Bittle's Easy Livin'" at Alcova Lake where he also enjoyed watching the birds, rabbits, deer, and butterflies. Birthdays and holidays were always special occasions on the deck at the lake.

Merle is survived by his daughter Merlene (Leo) Maddox; son, Gary (Charla) Bittle; sister Judy (Herb) Winebarger; nephew Justin McKelvey; grandchildren Colbi Maddox (Carl Hill), Lauren Maddox (Kris Anderson,) Kendra (Jason) Aanestad, and Jasie Bittle (Joe Moore); cousin Kay Root; and "Man's Best Friend," Buddy.

2 Jul 1920 – Powell Tribune (Powell, Park Co., Wyoming), 2 Jul 1920:

The people of the valley and especially the pioneer friends of George Pepper were greatly shocked to learn of his sudden death Tuesday. His death came as a result of one of those spells of heart trouble with which he had been afflicted for several years. Burial was made Thursday afternoon at the Crown Hill Cemetery, the funeral services being conducted at the Methodist church by Rev. Edwin Bowling.

The death of George Pepper is greatly regretted by his many friends about Powell. He was a very likeable gentleman, and his departure from this life seemed premature as he was only 67 years of age. His sorrowing widow and daughter have the sincere sympathy of the community in this loss. With a husband and four children originally, Mrs. Pepper now has but the one daughter, Mrs. Grace Clark, to comfort her in her declining years. Two of their children died in early childhood, and Powell people are familiar with the details of the tragedy that brought their son Clyde to his death some few years ago. In the grief that befalls them in the loss of a husband and father, Mrs. Pepper and her daughter have the comforting thought that Mr. Pepper was an honest and useful citizen of the community, and that he died in the high esteem of all who knew him.

George Henry Pepper was born in Washington County, Ohio, April 12, 1858. On March 28, 1882, he was united in marriage with Sarah Snodgrass. To this union were born four children: Clyde, Friend, Eva and Grace. About two years after his marriage, Mr. Pepper left his native (unreadable) and moved with his wife (unreadable) Kansas, residing there until the year 1909 when the family came to Powell valley, and by homesteading there with the other pioneers of the Shoshone Irrigation Project, played their part in helping to bring about this section's great development. Not since his coming here eleven years ago had Mr. Powell been absent from the Powell flat, except some two years ago, when he and Mrs. Pepper journeyed back to Ohio, because of the death of his aged mother. His father had died some years previous. Besides his wife and daughter, Mr. Pepper leaves of his immediate family to mourn his loss, two brothers and four sisters.
